Mr. Oliver Tambo,
Guest,

HYATT HOTEL

Welcome to New Zealand! I trust that the good old 'Kiwi' hospitality will be somewhat friendlier than that which you experienced in Australia.

Foreign Affairs have been in touch with us and I understand you will be lunching with us at home on Good Friday. I have not been advised of just how many will be lunching, but Merelyn and the four children will be there of course.

Oliver, I know that for you Saturday is also a free day prior to your departure on Sunday* whilst Foreign Affairs have thought about driving you on a scenic tour up to the Waitakeres (a forestry area), you may wish to join us at Manly. We have a beach house at Manly which is about 40 minutes drive north of Auckland - very quiet and beautiful, and you will have the opportunity to walk along the beach and just generally relax.

I will leave it up to you to decide, but should you wish to spend Saturday with us also, we would be delighted.

I am really looking forward to seeing you again, and for you to meet your New Zealand family. Merelyn, Jana (13), Justin (12), Anja (10), Tara (10) and of course, myself.

I will be attending the public meeting you are addressing on Wednesday evening.

Enjoy your stay - see you on Friday.

Best wishes.

P.S.

The Manager of the Hyatt Hotel, Ullrich Hoppe, is a personal friend of mine, and I have asked him to look after you.
