Dear Sir,

re: outstanding taxes - your reference No.

I am in receipt of your letter of January 24, and regret that owing to my having been away from London I did not receive it until some time last week.

I note that there is an amount of R60.63 payable by me in respect of outstanding tax, and have to advise that arrangements are now being made for a settlement thereof.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Godfrey,

I enclose a copy of a letter addressed to me by the Receiver of Revenue, which speaks for itself. Would you kindly settle the Receiver's account on my behalf to avoid the further accumulation of interest on the amount owing, and in due course favour me with a statement on the position of my personal account.

Adelaide and the children send their fond regards to you and "Aunty Molly" and the children. I shall write at greater length about things in general as soon as I am free of the present pressure of work.

Yours sincerely,

COPY
