Dear x: Jacob Zuma,
RE: FUTURE IMPERFECT CHAT SHOW - THE RIGHT To A FAIR TRIAL
Due to the success of the pilot screening of 'Future ImperfeCt' Penguin films, in association with the Centre for Applied Legal Studies, has been commissioned to produce further programmes.
We wish to invite you to take part as a panelist on the fourt;
programme of 'Future Imperfect' entitled 'The right to a fair trial.'

This programme examines the following issues:
Is legal representation essential for a fair trial? 13 detention without trial justifiable and if so under what circumstances?
What should the rights of detainees be? Free legal aid and the ethics and responsibilities of legal practitioners. How should police questioning be conducted?

In keeping' with the nature of the programme we will ask the panelists to respond to various hypothetical scenarios. The programme should be both lnformative and entertaining as we ask the panelists to become willing players in an hypothetical scenario.

The programme will be recorded in front of a live studio audience on the afternoon of the 15th August at Heyns studios in Midrand.
You Will be needed from 14.00. Recording will take place from 15.00 to 16.00 pm. We will confirm details on your acceptance of partielpation by fax.

Please ask us to make any necessary travel arrangements you may require.
