ANC PRESS STATEMENT ON ml; msmucwmm op ma mums

That the South African Police and the security forum in gamma: nmd to be restructured to make them accountable. more. responsible: t6

the community they serve create the means by which they are able to play a meaningful role in the new South Africa, is without question.

The {MC â\200\230has made a number of suggestions, 0302130de by its experience that in the first year of its unbanning, to the government as to how the role of the police can be changed.

One of the crucial issues facing the South African people is their lack of legitimacy, and the refusal by the oppressed in our society to accept them given the bitter experience of the past.

The ANC readily accepts the need for better training of the police and notes the recognition of the Minister of this reality. But, yet again, the measures proposed to correct the situation are those of the Nationalist Party alone, rather than those of the Community the police are intended to serve. The amalgamation of the Security. quice and the Security Branch into the. Crime Combaung and Investigatlon Section will need further comment once we have seen the toms of referancz: of this new unit, and the role it will play in the future.

The ANC reiterams its call for a publicly dmmmincd (.3,ng Of Conduct for the. policc, us well as the egtablishment of a mmmmsmn ao
