possible revival of insurgent actions in South Africa after a lull of nearly nine months. s

The ninth anniversary of the Soweto uprising occurs June 16 and is traditionally a time of black militancy. Yesterday, an ilsurgent shot dead a black policeman who challenged him in the trib-! â\200\234bomelandâ\200\235 of noithwest of Pretoria. Police in the tenitcry said today they were still trying to track down the insurgent.

that were held under a new constitution. Black nationalists have denounced it as tokenism., after the arrests, there was a surge of internal unrest that continues, Nearly 400 people have been killed, 1,500 injured and 10,000 arrested.

The government used the ANC today to explain why Army troops were in northern Angola, where two men were killed and one cap-

~Agenda for disaster

THE LEADER of the Opposition, Dr van Zyl Slabbert, is on target when he says the Defence Force has created a
- major credibility crisis for itself over the Cabinda affair.
General Malan put up 2 spirited defence about the need to locate enemy terrorist bases and â\200\234cut off by the rootsâ\200\235 ANC _plans: to attack civilian tar_gets. But he was a great deal â\200\230less convincing when he dealt with the Angolan relationship.
That country can well ask â\200\230what the point is of agree-â\200\234ments if its territory is to be â\200\234invaded at will. The captured
- manâ\200\231s statement that the mis| 'sion wasâ\200\231 aimed to. cause a â\200\234â\200\234considerable economic set-| - backâ\200\235 to Angola is the very ~ propaganda Dr Slabbert * warned of. The public display drawing will be seen as a confidence trick. Angolans â\200\224 and the rest of the world â\200\224 now know that South African commandos were in the far north were supposed to be south of the Kunene. This will be used to justify the continued presence of Cuban forces â\200\224 and that means the Namibian impasse continues. :

Dr Slabbert also touched on the fact that the SADF appears to have its own â\200\234totally unaccountable agendaâ\200\235. There was the deception over the 1975 Angolan campaign, then | the MNR connection, until re- | cently denied. General Malan should realise that this type of â\200\234action â\200\224 now replayed in Cabinda â\200\224 is not serving to create a climate of peace, which is the rationale he offers for Defence Force actions.
