Subject: Contract n7 94-7-5071/8

Dear Mr. Harrison,

. I am pleased to inform you that under budget line 7-5071, support to the Front Line States and to SADC

Member States, the Commission has decided to support the project you submitted entitled : Continuation of the support to a training programme for South African Students in the UK. I enclose 2 originals of the contract, which I would ask you please to sign and return to me as soon as possible.

I will subsequently send you your definitive copy after dating by the Commission, when the contract will take effect. Payment will then follow at the earliest possible moment under the terms of the contract.

I would like to draw your attention in particular to the following :

1. Above contract number should be mentioned as reference in all further correspondence related to this project;

2. As indicated in the conditions for the implementation attached to the contract - any major changes in the project should be agreed with the Commission in advance, - supplies purchased should be of European Community or ACP origin.

. 3. Please indicate in the two originals of contract (point 2) the account number and bank references related to this project. A separate bank and account number is needed for each contract under budget line 7-5071.

4. Organisations who were allocated a lower amount than the requested one, should introduce a statement saying that the missing funds will be obtained from other sources and that the project and/or action will be carried out as foreseen.

5. Please take good note of the enlarged clause 14, of the conditions for the implementation of budget line, which should allow possible publicity for the project covered under this contract.
