EXHIBITION : Raven Press

THE OTHER HUNDRED YEARS

A selection of photographs from Johannesburg: Images and Continuities
A history of working class life through pictures 1885 -1935.

OPENS : 25th January at 6:00pm

CLOSES : 14th February

Raven Press will be holding an exhibition entitled THE OTHER HUNDRED YEARS at the Market Photo Gallery from 25th January until 14th February.

The photographs on show have been selected from the book JOHANNESBURG:
IMAGES AND CONTINUITIES, a history of working class life through pictures 1885 - 1935, by Peter Kallaway and Patrick Pearson.

Kallaway and Pearson, one an antropologist , the other an historian collaborated to present a pictorial history from 1885. The book engages many significant themes in the making of the modern Witwatersrand. The photographs range from shots of early removals to prints of British soldiers checking "passes" during the Anglo- Boer War.

Photographers Evening for this exhibition will be at 6:00pm on 11th February. David Goldblatt will speak. All welcome. Entrance free .
