WARNING FOR DEFENCE AND SECURITY CHIEFS

F.W. DE KLERK PLAYING ILLEGAL, IMMORAL GAME

THE CRITICAL issue still facing white South Africa today is simple and clear. Do we keep our nationhood and sovereignty or do we lose them.

Will we retain our destiny on our own hands, or will we surrender our nation and our sovereignty to the liberals' communists. Zionists, and the mighty financial interests here and abroad whose ultimate aim is nothing less than the obliteration of the concept of nations: and their substitution by a collectivist New World Order, to be controlled by the U.N. and its invisible Zionist, communist and international financial manipulators?

The South African government became the pawn and instrument of these revolutionary world forces from the moment it started to align itself with the U.N., and to adopt and adapt itself to the U.S. State Department's, Kissinger-inspired politics of detente and negotiation with communist enemies.

And the white nation in South Africa today is little more than a pawn in the hands of the F.W. de Klerk government, whose policies of 'reform' and negotiation are squarely based on the same policies of negotiation with communist enemies as are those of the U.S. State Department itself.

All Zionist and communist crimes in the world today have in fact been made possible by this policy of negotiating with communists.

REPREHENSIBLE, UNBELIEVABLE

We of the S.A. Observer, who for over fifty years in police. intelligence and security services, have consistently fought against the communist evil, still find it quite unbelievable that our present military and police leaders â\200\224 leaders who have similarly spent their own lifetimes in the fight against the satanic forces of world communism â\200\224 have allowed our defence and police forces to become emasculated and destabilised to the point that the criminals of the ANC and the S.A. Communist Party have become the F.W. de Klerk government's chief negotiating partners in the constitutional initiatives for the so-called â\200\234new South Africa.â\200\235

These are the negotiations which inevitably and eventually must. and will end up in complete accord with the communist enemyâ\200\231's demands. and in black majority rule and takeover â\200\224 precisely as prescribed to the De Klerk government by the men of International Finance and world Jewry, who have thus put us on the road to their New World Order.

DEFENCE FORCE

Quite reprehensible, and quite unbelievable was the sudden handing over of SWA by the government to the criminals and communists of the U.N. and SWAPO: the sudden disbanding of the anti-communist National Security Council; and the sudden exposure of the anti-communist Civil Co-operation Bureau (CCB) to the glare of public scrutiny to the obvious satisfaction of all the forces of the far-left â\200\224 and without a peep out of our â\200\234anti-communistâ\200\235 Defence Minister, General Magnus Malan!

And all the evidence up to the present, indicates that he has decided to endorse the De Klerk strategy â\200\224 which means the stepping up of racial integration with blacks. and paving the way for the incorporation into the Defence System of the terrorists and communists of the ANC and S.A. Communist Party.

POLICE ROLE

Equally reprehensible have been the unbelievable roles of our new Commissioner of Police, Genl. Johan vansgoer Merwe. his Security Branch chief. Major General Basie Smit. and his acknowledged expert on Communism. Major General Herman Stadler. in allowing our security and anti-communist laws to be bypassed and circumvented to the point where black communist mobs are allowed to parade down all the main thoroughfares of our white towns and cities, with their ANC and communist red flags flying triumphantly.

2 S.A. OBSERVER

And with the ANC and the S.A. Communist Party too, also free to build up and consolidate their power in all the black areas and homelands, and on the way to destabilising them.

One would have believed that after a lifetime spent in the fight against the communist enemy. it would have been self-evident to them that overt, articulate and unyielding hostility to the Soviet Union and all its works was still both necessary and imperative for the same reason that truth is hostile to falsity, freedom to tyranny. and love and kindness to hate and brutality.

Good cannot clasp the hand of evil without becoming evil and without inviting its own destruction. Friendship and negotiation cannot be offered to tyrants and murderers of hundreds of millions of human beings. without advancing the cause of tyranny and murder. -

FATAL ERROR

It is a fatal error on the part of our present militaryand police leaders. and on the part of the F.W. de Klerk government itself, not to realise that the whole communist conspiracy is only one arm of the one immense and tremendously powerful master conspiracy.

The International Money Power and Communism are the subjective and objective manifestations of the one master world conspiracy. and which despite present developments in the Soviet Union, still has its heel firmly planted on the necks of more than 1 500-million human beings throughout the world.

There is the struggle for international power, waged by the forces of world communism and Zionism against the racial and national integrity of all the nations of the West,

Their goal. and that of all those behind the agitation against South Africa, is not to reform or to adjust things right but to destroy. and then to capture another anti-communist and white-ruled country, precisely as was done in Mozambique, Angola, Rhodesia and South West Africa.

EVER-READY POLITICAL INSTRUMENTS

And it was the duty of our Defence and Police Forces to act as guardians and upholders of the laws of the land. Instead, they have become the ever-ready political instruments of the De Klerk government.

The more so as President de Klerk received no mandate from the electorate to unban the ANC, the SA Communist Party and their affiliate organisations in South Africa.

Moreover, he certainly did not get a mandate from the electorate to release Nelson Mandela and the other convicted communist Rivonia Trialists to become his government's main negotiating partners in the run up to his new South Africa.

And he certainly would not have received a mandate from the electorate to implement the Four Phase Surrender Plan of the National Party to hand over South Africa to the ANC and black majority rule by the end of 1991.

STIFF HURDLES AHEAD

That State President de Klerk has now successfully brought the National Intelligence Service (NIS) to heel. In so far as his reform processes are concerned, was evident from his speech at a banquet last month to celebrate the NIS's 21st anniversary.

He said it was the task of the NIS to identify obstacles which stand in the way of the new South Africa in which peace, progress and security dominate, and then went on to credit the NIS with "helping the government to bring about the government's new broader attitude to the security threat against the country today.

However, having effectively brought the National Intelligence Service of Dr Neil Barnard to heel, two very stiff hurdles still confront the De Klerk government, namely the Defence Force and the S.A. Police force, the bulk of whose members still naturally support the Conservative Party and all the conservative forces throughout the country!

IN S.A. POLICE FORCE

Insofar as the S.A. Police are concerned, the following developments attest to the measures of success - so far achieved by Mr de Klerk in bringing them to heel:

In January, after the special closed door briefing by the State President of the Police Force's top 500 officers from throughout the country, they were instructed by our new Commissioner of Police, General Johan van der Merwe, to carry on their tasks in the new political situation regardless of their personal feelings and opinions.

The police will have to adjust and be ready and prepared to face any challenges that come our way, said Genl. van der Merwe.

The police would adapt to changes in the present government's attitude, together with changes in our society and also many other political changes that may take place.

He said the police were already adapting well to the changes and said all force members understood they were only tools of the legislature and could only apply the law.

And in April, we heard the U.S. Assistant Secretary of State, Hank Cohen, telling foreign journalists that he had seen South Africaâ\200\231s Minister of Law and Order, Mr

June 1290

AOOr:â\200\230an Viok, who hiad describec the programme of re-orientation of the S A Police to him

â\200\234The S.A. Police are being re-orientated by means of a psychological programme to be able to work with the ANC as a legal organisation rather than a banned enemy.

â\200\234The programmes now under way are designed to reconstruct the psychological outlook of the security forces ... a great effort was being made to synchronise the work of the police and other security forces with government reform policy.â\200\235 said Hank Cohen.

The S.A. Police liason officer said he was not aware of the programmes, but that did not necessarily mean that they did not exist!

And in a recent issue of SERVAMUS, official magazine of the S.A. Police, we see â\200\224 believe it or not â\200\224 an editorial preaching to South Atfrican policemen regarding their loyalty to the government. and it being brought into line with the processes of â\200\234reformâ\204ç

However, not a word is ever said by our new Commissioner of Police or by his senior officers about the many offences being committed on a daily basis, not only by the ANC and the S.A. Communist Party, but by the De Kierk government itself, in not enforcing the Suppression of Communism Act, the Internal Security Act and the Emergency Regulations, all of which are still on the Statute Books and therefore laws of the land.

THE LAW PERVERTED

It is indeed a sorry state of affairs when our present Defence and Security chiefs, all of whom have & life-time of fighting the evil forces of world communism â\200\224 behind them â\200\224 should suddenly turn turtie and become party to indoctrination courses designed to wean our young men away from their quite natural and basic loyalty to their own families, their own race, nation, culture and Christian civilisation, and by such methods force them to make an ideological about face, literally overnight.

Small wonder that the police do not know where they stand when the faws of the land are being circumvented and whittled away right in front of their eyes, in the name of â\200\234reformâ\200\235 and the â\200\234new South Africa.â\200\235

This is not good enough because the law itself is being perverted â\200\224 and the police powers of the state along with it.

The law is not only being turned fram its proper purpose but is being made to follow an entirely contrary purpose.

inevitably, the law has become the political weapon of the present government, and instead of enforcing the anti-communist laws of the land, the law itself is becoming guilty of the evils it is supposed to punish.

PLUMMETING MORALE

Is it any wonder then, that the undercurrent of resentment and frustration in the Police Force is growing?

Is it any wonder that the morale of our highly-trained and highly dedicated Police Force is plummeting with 25 white policemen daily quitting the S.A. Police. a situation described even by General van der Merwe himself as the most alarming?

A policeman is not a policeman anymore. He does not know when a law is to be applied.

He is supposed to be a missionary of reform who has to stand by with his hands tied behind his back and witness law after law being broken in front of his eyes, without being able to do anything about it, and then told to smile!

Inevitably by its actions the government is fast losing the respect and loyalty of its security forces.

ENCOURAGING THE COMMUNISTS

Its actions in allowing the State of Emergency to de facto elapse, while maintaining the fiction that it is still in force, and its general refusal to maintain law and order according to the anti-communist laws on the statute books, can only mean one thing.

It can only mean that the De Klerk government is encouraging the communist revolution, by crippling the last bastion of South Africa's defence. namely the S.A. Police.

And by deliberately undermining the effectiveness of our Police Force, one of the finest in the world, the De Klerk government is precipitating something which the forces of the world communist movement for the "last four decades have been trying to accomplish.

PATENTLY OBVIOUS

Today it is patently obvious that South West Africa was sold down the river in the same way as Rhodesia and that the De Klerk government is set on doing the same with South Africa.

The government is acceding to, and will continue to accede to ANC demands on every terrain. On the other hand, the ANC breaks the laws and defies order and whittles away white authority. And while the ANC continues to plunge the country into a revolutionary situation the government is providing immunity for it to do so.

The government has also now passed a law providing for indemnity for ANC and communist activists against prosecution even those guilty of heinous common-law crimes and it can be only a matter of time before it will become necessary to incorporate the terrorists and murderers of the ANC and the S.A.

Communist Party into the larger Defence and Police security systems. 2

And today with the forces of the communist world revolution fast closing in on South Africa, and on all its law-abiding peoples, black, white and brown. we would again strongly warn the custodians of our police and defence forces that they cannot indefinitely go on sitting on the ideological fence. no matter how comfortabiedit might be for the moment. :

The white nation we would warn them is fast awakening to its plight, and highly angered.

Soonerthan later, they will be forced to take sides â\200\224 the side of their own race, nation and civilisation or else 10 take the side of the De Klerk government working in tandem with the Nelson Mandelas, the Joe Siovo's. the ANC, the S.A. Communist Party and the whole communist apparatus inside and outside the country.

There can today be no more standing room whatsoever between the two sides. Moreover, there can be no more slinking away from the challenges that would have aroused our ancestors to instant action and combat.

DUTY, RESPONSIBILITY

There is a duty owed to the White manâ\200\231s past and to his civilisation â\200\224 and an even greater duty to the white man's future and survival, nÃ©t only in South Africa but throughout the West

That now ls the duty and the responsibility of those of our military and security leaders who still know the meamnÃ© of the word, duty and responsibility 10 ther race and nationhood and sovereignty.

It is patriotic to support a State President insofar as he loyally serves his own race and nation. It is unpatriotic not to oppose him to the exacl extent that by betrayal or sellout or otherwise, he tails in his duty to stand by his country and the racial and national integrity of his own people

Clearly, the time is already now long overdue forthe custodians of our Defence and Security to stand up 10 the F.W. de Kierk government, and to be counted as worthy descendants of their forebears.

Otherwise they, together with the government, will centinue in their high positions to operate onan illegza!. immoral and unconstitutional basis â\200\224 and continue actively and knowingly to play the nation-destroying, sell-out game of the F.W. de Klerk government â\200\224 ands the deadly World Communist game at that. O

THE CANKER IN THE ROSE

BY N.A. HUNT

ONE of the difficulties of dealing with Blacks on any other basis than that of master and man is their unpredictability and unreliability. The current political manoeuvring between the S.A. Government anad the communist ANC proves this point. .

The long-term aim of both the National Party and the Democratic Party, in compliance with orders from behind the scenes, is to turn South Africa into a communist-dominated but ostensibly Black-ruled state.

To bring this about, Mr de Klerk must do two things: he must hold a National Indaba on the lines of the infamous Natal indaba. The second essential is to lull the growing White unease at what is happening.

The National Indaba will be modelled closely on the Rhodesian Dombashawa Indaba. Both the Natal and the Domboshawa Indabas were immensely valuable to the Left. They accustomed the White to the idea that the Black should be deferred to rather than ruled.

They ensured that all views held by the Left were set out at length, to receive warm approval from all liberals and extensive media publicity. Right-wing views and a few were expressed at both Indabas and were either ignored or derided.

Our own National Indaba will follow this pattern.
NEW CONSTITUTION

We have set out above the political strategy of the National and Democratic Parties and eventual Black rule. The aim of every Black attending the Indaba, no matter what his political label, is precisely the same. This is the aim, too, of Russia, of Britain and of America.

To this end, the Indaba will be allowed to waffle for a suitable length of time. It will then be manipulated into setting up a Commission to draw up a new Constitution for S.A. We now know that there will then be a referendum on the new Constitution. So the National Party must win the referendum.

Mr de Klerk is anxious to get the Indaba over and the new constitution formulated as soon as possible. Because he has his troubles. Perhaps his biggest headache is that he must deal with Blacks. To them, time is meaningless and common sense, as seen by the White is unimportant.

To get the Blacks to talk with him Mr de Klerk has already made vast concessions. His hope was that the Blacks would accept the concessions as expressions of good will and be moved to act reasonably. In fact, they have reacted as Blacks: every concession has been rightly interpreted as another sign that the Whites are on the run.

Thus each gesture is at once followed by fresh demands.

Another headache for Mr de Klerk is that, no matter how carefully he may conceal the fact, it remains true that even now the White has in his hands all political, economic and military power. The White has but to remember this, and to decide to use this power, to frustrate the National Party and their international allies.

June 1980

S.A. OBSERVER S

So if it is necessary to move fast
THE GUARANTEE!

As noted above, the Whites are becoming restive: a good reason for nolding the indaba soon. The White voter musi be re-assured if he is to be persuaded to commit racial and political suicide by accepting a multi-racial constitution. The Indaba will give the Prime Minister the chance to soothe and re-assure.

For Mrde Klerk has two gimmicks to be unveiled at the Indaba with & suitable flounsh ol trumpets. He hopes that they will ensure thit he has his way. He is certain that they will be hailec by an ecstatic media world-wide as supreme flowerings of the human genius. '

The first panacea will be The Guarantee. This is intended to re-assure those who fear torttheir future as members of racial minorities. They will be assured that they can forget their fears: The Guarantee stands between them and all harm.

This is, of course, utter nonsense. The Indaba will hear much noble waffle about The Guarantees with a marked lack of anything specific.

Any impious doubter suggesting that each Guarantee be set out in detail. including the precise penalties for a breach, the names of the Powers signing The Guarantee and means to be used to enforce observance will be treated with contempt. His suggestion will be rejeced as unnecessary and an insult to the Blacks and the 'international community'.

CASE OF RHODESIA

Yet we know from the case of Rhodesia that any request to Russia, Britain or America to intervene when The Guarantee is ignored will be met by a biand statement that this would constitute interference in the internal affairs of Azania. and is thus out of the question. It happened in Rhodesia: why will it not happen here?

In the upshot. the Indaba will be cozened into accepting far-reaching changes 'all at the expense of the Whites' simply on & statement that The Guarantee will iook atfter their interests.

Anyone who doubts that the Whites will be so stupid as to put their necks on the block simply because of vague assurances from Blacks and Communists should think again.

The Rhodesians were just as iThelligent as the South African Whites, and had just as much to lose. They did just this. Why will South African whites do otherwise? The evidence is that they will not.

BILL OF RIGHTS!

Yet in spite of the dazzling promise of The Guarantees tee there may still be doubters. To re-assure them Mr de Klerk â\200\224 or rather his masters behind the scenes â\200\224 have a second anodyne, one calculated to re-assure even the most doubtful.

This is The Bill of Rights. Such a Bill will be produced in an atmosphere of reverence befitting such a work of genius. It will be asked what possible further grounds there can be for hesitation and doubt when the future is safeguarded both by The Guarantees and by The Bill of Rights. :

To make assurance trebly sure it will be proposed that a special body, with a suitably impressive title, be set up to test all proposed legislation against the touchstone of The Bill.

To ensure impartiality the members of this august body will be chosen by the State President, no less. There is no need to frighten the White sheep by telling them that every member of the body will be a liberal and that at least half will be Black.

Whites will probably fall over themselves accepting The Bill of Rights. They will learn too late that it is the final nail in the White coffin.

A Bill of Rights ensures that the Whites can never act speedily or solely in his own interest.

A Bill of Rights ensures that almost every measure can be tested for racial impartiality in the Courts. This means that until a ruling is received all similar cases are adjourned.

Further, since all legislation must be non-racial, the mere existence of the Bill of Rights has a widely paralysing effect on both administration and the judiciary; one can never be sure of what may be held to be in contravention of the Bill. Better therefore to do nothing. Very handy if the intention is to neutralise the Whites, as in South Africa.

Not for nothing have the Australians just held a referendum and decisively rejected a Bill of Rights.

With both The Guarantee and The Bill of Rights to re-assure him, the White man may well accept the proposed constitution. The Rhodesians did. They had guarantees, a Bill of Rights and a new constitution. None of these saved the Rhodesian Whites. Nor did any of these safeguards prevent Shona genocide of the Matabele minority. Not a word of protest came from the guarantors or from the â\200\234international communityâ\200\235.

South African Whites may like to ask themselves just why, in the face of this evidence, they think that things will be different here?

DEADLY DANGER

As regards the new Constitution, our enemies will use a stroke of political genius. They will assure us that the Constitution â\200\234will reflect all shades of opinionâ\200\235.

How can the Whites possibly be fearful when they have the Guarantees, the Bill of Rights and a Constitution reflecting all political views. What could be more just, more statesmanlike, more democratic? If the Whites accept this constitution they are lost.

â\200\234The insistence on â\200\234all shades of opinionâ\200\235 is the deadly danger, the canker in the heart of the rose.

The Whites may accept the LONSHTULION N some of the fact that it will be urged upon them by Britain, by America, by Russia, by the churches by international finance, by the media and by their own businessmen: by every enemy of the white South African. in fact. I sound impossible. but the Whites may well fall for it They will in Rhodesia. Why will they not here?

The danger for the Whites lies in the phrase "all shades of political opinion". This ensures that some of the members of the new government will be communists Two of them will suffice. Soon rather than later they will usurp power. This is because they are by far the best trained, the best disciplined, the most amply funded and, above all, the most ruthless. South Africa will then become Azania, and their March to Pretoria will be over
BROADLY-BASED GOVERNMENT

Those who doubt this should reflect that Britain and America love what they call "broadly-based governments" Whenever they can they install one.

in China, the West compelled Chiang Kai Shek to accept Communists in his government. He was forced

The West forced the Cuban Batista to accept the agrarian reformer "Castro", who speedily ousted him Allende in Chile suffered a similar fate.

in South America and Africa the history is long indeed. why will it not happen in South Africa as it has elsewhere?

This journal has regularly made the point that the issue in our country is not which ideology shall prevail but which race shall rule. The electors have regularly ignored this warning

It cannot be too strongly stressed that as a result their last remaining chance of survival is to use the referendum to reject the new constitution, and thus force a general election. If they fail to do this, they are lost

Since the issue is simply whether Black or White shall rule, the Whites might profitably ponder the Zulu proverb which runs "salakutshelewa sibona ngoMopota". Freely translated, this means "He who will not heed advice will learn from the shedding of (his) blood".

HIGH COST OF N.P. GOVERNMENT

BY PROF. DR. A.D. PONT

IN 1983 when the National Party under PW Botha

finally abandoned the policy of apartheid. the main argument was that apartheid as a policy had failed. What actually happened was that the National Party under B.J. Vorster had. from 1966 onwards, gradually abandoned the policy, and by administrative measures certain laws had been suspended.

That the murder of Dr. H.F. Verwoerd was an event of major proportions soon became evident when his successor. B.J. Vorster was wine and dine in the Rand Club. the social focal point of the Big Money magnates in Johannesburg.

Vorster was the first South African Prime Minister since Gen J.C. Smuts, the so-called "handyman of the Empire" to be invited in the Rand Club. This visit probably laid the foundations for the new policies of the NP who since then have accepted the political direction mapped out for them by the Money magnates.

Gradually the National Party shifted to the left and in going so pushed the old United Party. the party of the Oppenheimers and the so-called Rand Lords. into oblivion. step by step occupying the ground once held by the United Party.

At the same time the National Party and its support-organisations like the Broederbond. the FAK, the Rapportryers and others were busy isolating and knocking off the ordinary, nationalist Afrikaner.

It was Vorster, to quote an example, who gave the orders to suppress, inter alia, the National Council against Communism, stating that he and the Security Police had eradicated communism in South Africa!

Part of that campaign was the vicious attack by Vorster and the Afrikaans Press on the editor of the S.A. Observer because he was, as they called it. an agent provocateur!

The rift in the Afrikaner nation became an open wound when the conservative element was hounded out of the Party. Thus the HNP was born. taking its stand firmly on the Verwoerd policy which had suddenly become anathema, verkramp, outmoded and the epitome of backward thinking:!

ONCE THE VOLKSFRONT

Gradually the National Party which once proudly called itself die volksfront van die Afrikaner, and excluded Jews and aliens from membership, drifted to the left, egged on by massive contributions from the Money magnates towards Party funds.

The Cape liberal Nats of Verwoerd's day. who acted as the entry port for leftist American propaganda and financial backing, gradually became the rabid liberal wing of the Party which is now pushing for total surrender to the ANC-SACP alliance.

This, more or less, proves the point made by the international weekly, New Solidarity of 5 September 1985, which stated that the international banks had

SITUATION TODAY

I one compares that to the situation today it is cleat that the National Party since Vorster has been gradually leading the country downhill. The economy is in ruins: black and white relations are strained; and conlinuing and escealating communist-inspired violence, unrest. strikes and â\200\234freedom marchesâ\200\231â\200\235 are infliected on us. We have escalating inflation, boycotts and a depressed gold price while so-called "world opinionâ\204¢ is continually howling for the further persecution of the Afrikaner and the White man in South Africa.

Atthe same time all the power bases established in South Atrica by means of communist and left-liberal financial backing from Americar Foundations, German Trade Unions. Scandinavien government grants and clerical organisations like the World Council of Churches, the Evangelische Kirche in Deutschland
and others. have created a myriad of organisations demanding the blood and property of the Afrikaner.

in the meantime the National Party government is pulling down the whole apartheid legislation which was erectec to protect the Afrikaner and the white man in his own country from being overrun by black immigrants.

In this process the National Party government is undermining the solidarity and cohesion of the Afri-
kaner people.

It becomes clearer by the day that the National Party government is not much more than a tool in the hands of the International Zionist controlled financial cabal. The mineral riches of South Africa are up for arabs. and the Afrikaner, being in the way, is being pushed aside like the weakling we have become uncer Vorster. Botha and De Klerk's leadership.

COMPLETE DEMORALISATION

t is ironic that the National Party fought and won the 1989 general election in September with the slogan: Vote for the National Party for peace. prosperity and security. For the direction the National Party is now heading is leading to increasing conirontation, clashes. violence and murder, an economy gradually staggering towards stagnation, and a political takeover by the communists with the subsequent outlawing of the Afrikaner, the white man and his ideals in this part of the world.

in this citmate Stephen Rohnsorn of the LONCO!
Daily Telegraph commented in tne Sunday Times on Sthe complele gemoraisation of the siarry-eyed liberals in their armchairs in Johannesburg and Cape Town

They have been shocked to the core by the unbarning of the ANC-SACF and the PAC. the release of Mandela and the other communists. and the resultant mayham, strikes marches and violence COuplea with the unbridied language and demands of the-we organ:: sations. Indeed the reahties of Atnca are to: narshet than the normal armchai hberal ever areamt ofl.

In this present situation it ls gracgually dawning on many that the Afrikaner's policy of apartheid is infinitely more realistic for the survival of the Afrikaner and tot civilised Christian norms, than anything the liberals ot the communists could think of.

Bul still the useful idiots are parroting the communist propaganda line in the press, on radio and TV_. We even hear from noted Afrikaans theologians that nationalism is @ heinous sin, that any attempt tc preserve Afrikaner identity is an act tnat will rouse the wrath of God and that the preservation of the family and the Afrikaner nation is a deliberate contradiction of the expressed Word of God.

Never before in our history has there been such concerted action to hound the Afrikaner nation 1010 submitting to the black forces of communism and International Zionist finance. The possession of the mineral wealth of our country is the aim of the whole exercise.

These vital raw materials are probably necessaryicr the industries of the North Atlantic countries who neec the raw materials to create new wealth for the economic upliftment of Russia. To succeed in this eim the Afrikaner nation must be dispossessed and swept into oblivion by the black communist masses.

CRITICAL SITUATION

In this critical situation the National Party government is not in the least concerned with the interests of the Afrikaner nation or the white man though still calling itself a National Party. The government has become the tool of International Finance. mainly through cupidity. probably also through deliberate mismanagement of everything entrusted to it by the Afrikaner over the years.

The situation is grave indeed. particularly in view of the fact that the National Party government wants a black majority government in power by 1882 to coincide with events in Europe.

SITUATION TODAY

It one compares that to the situation today it ls cleat thattthe National Party since Vorster has been gradually leading the country downhili. The economy is In ruins; biack and white relations are strained; and continuing and escalating communist-inspired violence, unrest. strikes and â\200\234freedom marchesâ\204¢ are inflicted on us. We have escalating inflation. boycotts and & depressed gold price while so-called â\200\234worid opinionâ\204¢ is continually howiing for the further persecution of the Afrikaner and the White man in South Africa.

Atthe same time ali the power bases established in South Africe by means of communist and left-liberal financial backing from American Foundations, Ger-mean Trade Unions, Scandinavian government grants and clerical organisations like the World Council of Churches. the Evangelische Kirche in Deutschland
and others. have created a myriad of organisations
demanding the blood and property of the Afrikaner.

In the meantime the National Party government is pulling down the whole apartheid legislation which was erectedto protect the Afrikaner and the white man in his own country from being overrun by black immigrants. . '

In this process the National Party government is undermining the solidarity and cohesion of the Afri-
kaner people.

It becomes clearer by the day that the National Party government is not much more than a tool in the hands of the International Zionist controiled financial czbal. The minera!l riches of South Africa are up for arzbs. and the Afrikaner, being in the way, is being pushed aside like the weakling we have become under Vorster, Botha and De Klerk's leadership.

[t is ironic that the National Party fought and won the 1989 general election in September with the slogan: Vote for the National Party for peace, prosperity and security. Forthe direction the National Party is now heading is leading to increasing confrontation, clashes, violence and murder, an economy gradually staggering towards stagnation, and a political takeover by the communists with the subsequent outlawing of the Afrikaner, the white man and his ideals in this part of the world.

In this climate Stephen Robinson of the London Daily Telegraph commented in the Sunday Times on the complete demoralisation of the starry-eyed liberals in their armchairs in Johannesburg and Cape Town.

They have been shocked to the core by the unbanning of the ANC-SACP and the PAC. the release of Mandela and the other communists. and the resultant mayhem. strikes marches and violence coupled with the unbridled languages and demands of these organisations. Indeed the realities of Apartheid are far harsher than the normal armchair liberal ever dreamt of.

In this present situation it is gradually dawning on many that the Afrikaner's policy of apartheid is infinitely more realistic for the survival of the Afrikaner and for civilised Christian norms, than anything the liberals or the communists could think of.

But still the useful idiots are parroting the communist propaganda line in the press. on radio and TV. We even hear from noted Afrikaans theologians that nationalism is a heinous sin, that any attempt to preserve Afrikaner identity is an act that will rouse the wrath of God and that the preservation of the family and the Afrikaner nation is a deliberate contradiction of the expressed Word of God.

Never before in our history has there been such concerted action to hound the Afrikaner nation into submitting to the black forces of communism and international Zionist finance. The possession of the mineral wealth of our country is the aim of the whole exercise.

These vital raw materials are probably necessary for the industries of the North Atlantic countries who need the raw materials to create new wealth for the economic upliftment of Russia. To succeed in this aim the Afrikaner nation must be dispossessed and swept into oblivion by the black communist masses.

CRITICAL SITUATION

In this critical situation the National Party government is not in the least concerned with the interests of the Afrikaner nation or the white man though still calling itself a National Party. The government has become the tool of International Finance. mainly through cupidity, probably also through deliberate mismanagement of everything entrusted to it by the Afrikaner over the years.

The situation is grave indeed, particularly in view of the fact that the National Party government wants a black majority government in power by 1992 to coincide with events in Europe.

This. like all major government policies, clearly shows that not the interests of South Africa but the interests of outside and foreign powers are shaping events in South Africa. It is, however, just possible that

NEGOTIATIONS FIRMLY REJECTED

GAPE TOWN â\200\224 Dr Andries Treurnicht. Conservative Party leader. headed his party in walking out of Parhia-ment forthe day on May 2. lo register a protest against negotiations with "the Communists and the ANC".

in a protest document to the State President. Mi FW. de rlerk. Dt Treurnicht demanded.

(1) An immediate end to the talks. and

(2) â\200\234An election for the House of Assembly so that the White voters may be given the opportunity to elect a new government.â\200\235

Answering questions by the media at an informal conference after delivering the Conservative Party's protest at Tuynhuys. Dr Treurnicht said that when i became the government. the Conservaiive Party would negotiate. but only with legal representatives of the people and not terrorist organisations.

â\200\234\We obiect to the State President negotiating with peopie responsible for the deaths of dozens of people in South Africa.

â\200\234in the election campaign, the government promised not to negotiate with the ANC prior to its renunciation of violence.â\200\235

Dr Treurnicht said that in terms of the Interne!
Security Act. the ANC and the SA Communist Party were still illegal. and their actions constituted treason.

CONTRARY TO OATH

By talking to them. Mr de Klerk was acting contrary to his oath on becoming State President. which was to uphold the laws of the land.

Asked whether the Conservative Party might be â\200\234more militantâ\200\235 it the government did not concede to -

Conservative Party demands. Dr Treurnicht said:

â\200\234The Conservative Party is a political party which strives for the majority of the White electorate. As long as that option is open to us. we intend to get that majority.â\200\235

The Conservative Party petition to the State President said: â\200\234The Official Opposition in the House of Assembly states its strongest objection to the far-reaching action which you as State President are taking in negotiating with the Communists and the ANC.

â\200\234You are acting immorally, because you specifically and emphatically excluded such a step when you asked the White voters for a mandate on September 6. 1989.

â\200\234The National Party's mandate. no matter how wide or general it may be on other issues. is Â specific and clear about the ANC. and leaves no room for doubt: namely. that the National Party will not talk to the ANC."

The petition added that the National Party originally took the stand that Mr Mandela would not be released before he renounced violence. However, he was freed unconditionally, and since then had not only spoken provocatively about violence and sanctions. but had pleaded for increased sanctions and violence.

â\200\234The Conservative Party warns that the government has built up the stature of the ANC to such an unprecedented height that it has achieved the image of an alternative government for South Africa.

FURTHER WARNING

â\200\234The Conservative Party further warns that there is no reliable indication that the ANC is today anything other than a bloody Communist terrorist organisation and that it still adheres to its demands to establish . a Black Communist dictatorship. to nationalise White property and to achieve its aims with violence.

â\200\234The Conservative Party is concerned that you will also concede to the remaining demands of the ANC. namely. to lift the state of emergency and to allow so-called political prisoners. who are actually terrorists. to return to South Africa.

â\200\234Such a step would further build up the winning image of the ANC and strengthen its claim to take over the government of South Africa.â\200\235 said the Conservative Party petition. signed by Dr Treurnicht on behalf of the Conservative Party. B

ASSASSINATION PLAN

THE bombshell revelations by the leader of the Conservative Party Dr A.P. Treurnicht of a plan to assassinate selected Rightists and members of the security forces has brought to light an ominous development in South African politics: the current trend among members of the ruling establishment to declare the Conservative Party as enemy number one. with the ANC as the National Party's future friend!

P.W. BOTHA DROPS SPANNER
IN NP WORKS

FORMER president P.W. Botha has finally cut his ties with the National Party. which he severely embarrassed before last year's elections.

Mr Botha. who left office amid great bitterness after suffering a stroke early last year. this week announced he had not renewed his membership of the NP. He has been a member for more than 50 years.

He gave as his reasons his deep differences with the present party leadership under State President F.W. de Klerk. who ousted him last year shortly before the elections.

In addition Mr Botha objected to the inclusion of SA Communist Party secretary-general Joe Slovo in the ANC delegation which held talks with the Government this week.

In an interview with the Afrikaans Sunday newspaper. â\200\234Rapport.â\200\235 Mr Botha said he completely dis-sociated himself with the present leadership of the Nztional Party. as well as the course it was following at present. =

Mr Botha said he was a reformer. but that reform had to take place together with the maintenance of law. order and internal security.

ROAD OF ABDICATION

The National Party was now embarked on a course of gradual abdication. said Mr Botha. who warned that world Communism was still as strong and dangerous as ever!.

Mr Slovo was an arch-Communist who had cold-bloodedly planned the demise of Sp_L_J_th Africa from London. while the ANC not only stood for nationalisation. but was surrounded and dominated by Communist leaders.

The former State President said he had refrained from taking an active part in politics since his resignation as State President in August last year.

However. he had since been inundated daily with letters and messages from people trying to persuade him otherwise.)

He had been a paid-up 'member of the National Party since May, 1936. and had throughout taken a stand against Communism and terrorism.

He favoured orderly reform in terms of Christian values. but not abdication.

He had informed the chairman of the Wilgerness branch of the NP of his serious misgivings concerning the present direction of the NP leadership and. for this reason. he had chosen not to continue his membership of the National Party.

Mt Botha said he held strong views over what was happening to the country but. because he had retired from politics. and intended staying out of it. he did not wish to discuss them.

However. concerning Communism. the ANC and SACP leader. Mr Slovo. he said:

"I do not believe the ideologies of world Communism have changed. Things happened in East Europe, and the Communist economic policy collapsed, but not Communism as such.

Joe Slovo is the founder of Umkhonto we Sizwe. the military arm of the ANC."

Mr Botha said there was a monument near Pretoria bearing the names of young South Africans who had lost their lives in the fight against terrorism.

"I do not speak out now. these monuments will .." he said. =

WORKING TOGETHER

THE American people are being subjected to the biggest propaganda blitz in recorded history. The purpose is to alter the public's perception of the Soviet bloc and its relationship to the United States so as to bring about a new world order. a one-world super-state.

The powerful elite, many of whose members belong to the Council on Foreign Relations and the Trilateral Commission. manipulate public opinion and u.s. foreign policy with the expectation of being rulers of the world government which will emerge.

Quite a few years ago the president of the Ford Foundation made the startling statement that the Ford Foundation's goal is to so alter life in the United States that it can be comfortably merged with the Soviet Union.

Just two years ago Senator Jesse Helms repeated this idea on the Senate floor when he warned that "these interests ... are working in concert with the masters of the Kremlin in order to create a new world order."

Now. George Bush and Mikhail Gorbachev are working together to lay the groundwork for the coming one-world government. It is only when viewed from this perspective that the events of today make any sense.

WORLD BANKS WON'T BACK U.S. . DEBTS POLICY

WASHINGTON â\200\224 A worldwide banking group warned that banks would not put up money to back the us strategy for attacking the Third World's trillion dollar debt mountain unless changes were made.

â\200\234|f they want us in the game. they better think about enhancing (its attractiveness).â\200\235 Mr Barry Sullivan, crairman of the Institute of international Finance. told a2 news conference.

His warning came as economic policymakers from more than 150 nations arrived for the semi-annual meeting of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and World Bank.

The institute. which counts most of the worldâ\200\231s big banks as its members. complained that the worldâ\200\231s 15 largest debtor nations were behind on their payments 10 the banks by more than 18 billion doliars.

â\200\234Toleration of arrears to banks weakens the (world'â\200\231s financial) system.â\200\235 said Mr Sullivan. O

AIDS SHOCK FOR SOUTH AFRICA

NEARLY half of the South Africans aged over 15 will be â\200\234HIV positiveâ\200\235 by the end of the '80s â\200\224 unless preventive action is taken soon.

This is the â\200\234conservativeâ\200\235 projÃ©ction of Oid Mutual corporate actuary Graham Prentice who has been conducting statistical analyses on the spread of the killer disease. Aids.

The gaint assurance group has been taking a close look at the likely impact of Aids in view of its rapid spread in Africa and the enormous impact it holds for the economy in general and insurance in particular.

Mr Prenticeâ\200\231's figures show that unless people begin to take more precautions. in 10 years from now more than 10-miillion South Atricans will be infected. About 321 00C peopie a year wili be dying from Aids and another 472 000 will have Aids-related diseases (the last stage before deatn).

The disease has reached such proportions that some insurance companies are refusing to â\202-xpose {hemselves to the risk in African countries.

While the incidence of Aids in South Africa appears to be lower at this stage. the country is moving in the same direction. This means that other African coun-tries are just â\200\234further down the trackâ\200\235 and â\200\224 if behaviout does not change â\200\224 In a tew years South Africa will reach the same point. O â\200\234HERESY" OF APARTHEID!

BY P.W. JAMES

POLITICAL priests like Johan Heyns. Tutu. Boesak. Beyers Naude et al, are in the habit of telling us that apartheid is one of the most terrible heresies in the world: that it is a heresy against Christianity. but they would be far more accurate to describe it as a heresy against international socialism and communism.

This becomes clear when we remember that the Ministers who taught our forefathers had the Bible but no handbook on socialism: and that for them segrega-tion was compatible with Christianity.

Our modern Ministers. however. now have the Bible plus Das Kapital; and for them segregation has now become incompatible with Christianity. But the only difference is socialism because the Bible has not changed. If socialism is omitted. segregation and Christianity are still compatible. -

GIVEN RELIGIOUS BASE

Marx and Engels purposely gave their movement a religious base on the concepts of â\200\234the brotherhood of manâ\200\235 and â\200\234social justice.â\200\235

The World Council of Churches and political priests have now adopted â\200\234the brotherhood of manâ\200\235 and â\200\234social justiceâ\200\235 as a new base for Christianity and so it is not difficult to understand why and how many sin-cere churchmen easily confuse socialism and com-munism with Christianity.

It is also understandable why church leaders. once confused. desire to translate their â\200\234socializedâ\200\235 Chris-tianity into political action; and to o to any lengths to intimidate the Christian world and enforce their new social dogma. in the name of Christianity.

Political priests do not realise that socialist myths will never prevail against biological facts; and many of them will pursue their â\200\234social gospelâ\200\235 with a missionary

WHEN HISTORY COMES TO JUDGE
NATIONAL PARTY

BY D.L. DU BOIS

WHILE the National Party's mask continues to shp witl each of its leftward leaps leaving many whites he-wiidered and confused â\200\224 lo the point where even Democratic Party supporters have become â\200\234demora-iised Progsâ\200\235 â\200\224 the patiern for these events was first set in motion 16 years ago.

In 1974 a â\200\234progressiveâ\200\235 wing took root within the National Party when two well-known figuies came into prominence: Pik Botha as U.N. Ambassador and Denis Worrall. @ former Progressive Party Youth Leader. as National Party MP for Gardens. By 1977 Botha had become Foreign Minister and Worrall the chairman of the National Party's constitutional committee which devised the power-sharing shambies we have been in since 1884.

By 1878 the â\200\234progressiveâ\200\235 wing within the Neational Partyhad grown to 16 accordingtowhatwas termedâ\200\234a list of key South African liberalsâ\200\235 published by the us State Department (see: SA Observer. February 1878. p. 8. Besides Worrall and Pik Botha the list inciuded F W. de Kierk. Barend du Plessis. Adrian Viok. Koornhof. S.J. (Sam) de Beer. Dawie de Villiers and Kent Durr.

Writing in the winter 1980 edition of the Council on Foreign Reiations journal Foreign Affairs. Dr Chester Crocker noted that Mr P.W. Botha and his "moder-nisersâ\200\235 had succeeded in carrying out 2 â\200\234coup d'etatâ\200\235 i terms of realigning the Netional Partyâ\200\231s structure and moving away from Verwoerdian ideology towards a â\200\230new dispensationâ\200\231 (p. 333-334).

At the same time. however. Crocker declared: â\200\234The creation of @ new non-racial order is not going lo take piace through a sudden dramatic act... Hundreds of cecisions. draw-out negotiations and probably a combination of violence and politics will precede the dawn of a new age tor South Africansâ\200\235 (p. 327).

IN PIECEMEAL FASHION

Thus. in piecemeal fashion white seJ_f-determination has been dismantled and South Africa has been prod-ded down the road to where it presently finds itself. And each step towards the mess we are now in has been greeted by demands for further so-called reforms.

Yet when it is recalled that the Government'â\200\231s chief negctiator at this time. Minister Gerrit Viijoen, was quoted in Le Point, Paris.on December4. 1978 as saying that the National Party would set up a multiracial South Africa that would be mare black than white, then it appears difficult to avoid the conclusion that the country is being taken on a deliberately charted course. the end result of which the same Minister Viljoen recently declared. would see the National Party out of power within 10 years and. by implication. black majority rule in South Africa

When history comes to judge the National Party it will have only one issue upon which to deliberate: did the party belong to the ranks of the great deceivers or those of the greatly deceived?

WIN FOR C.P. PREDICTED

A REPORT in the Washington Times of April 9 stated that South Africa's Conservative Party would win & White House of Assembly election if this were held tomorrow.

Under the headline 'De Klerk losing popularity in South Africa. Survey Says', the report states that if South African President Frederik de Klerk were forced into a general election now. his ruling National Party would lose to the right-wing pro-apartheid Conservative Party. according to a secret survey by members of the ruling National Party.

It means that Mr de Klerk is proceeding with his reformist moves to abolish apartheid and work out a new constitution for South Africa with black leaders at severe cost to his political power base.

According to the survey data given to the Washington Times this weekend. support for the Conservative Party has passed the 50 per cent mark.

Analysts speculate that the poll may reflect disappointment that Mr de Klerk's recent reforms. including the release of African National Congress leader Nelson Mandela and the unbanning of the ANC. have not brought peace.

Instead. the resurgence of violence has undermined investor confidence and has given rise to fear and resentment among Whites.

On the strength of this. it is highly unlikely that the government will enter another election unless forced into it.

RUDOLPH ADMITS INVOLVEMENT

FORMER Pretoria city councillor and conservative activist Mr Piet â\200\234Skietâ\200\235 Rudoiph on April 22 admitted he was involved in the theft of arms from South African â\200\230Air Force headquarters in Pretoria.

â\200\234This is the beginning of the counter revolution,â\200\235 he said in a telephone call to The Pretoria News.

â\200\234| was forced to take things from the government. which | am hostile to. The weapons will not be used against the Deience Force or the police but against the ANC. We are now going for the ANCâ\200\231s throat.â\200\235

Reijerring to three nationa! servicemen arrested in connection with the theft on Saturday. he said: "I am sorry for the young men. but they did it because of ~ my influence.â\200\235 .

Asked if he had been involved in the theft. he replied: I do not deny my involvement.â\200\235

The strategy is to let single white women drive the bakkie while the men hide in the back under sacks. armed with sjamboks. O

~TOWARDS THE NEW WORLD ORDER

AMERICANS have been warned for years that a group of international financiers. politicians. and utopian dreamers were plotting to turn the world into a superstate from which there would be no escaping. The public scoffed and called it a conspiracy theory.

Now only a miracle can save America from what is already happening in Europe.

European stickers, giant posters in department store windows. paintings on the sides of buildings and automobile license plates proclaim rejection of allegiance to flag or country.

Drivers traversing Europe pass huge blue boards bearing gold stars for what once were nations and facing them is an announcement that they are entering a EUROPEAN community instead of the city of a sovereign country.

In recognizing a boundaryless Europe as their country Europeans are repudiating their attachment to everything their forefathers died for.

In the beginning they were told they were building an economic community. to do away with passports and customs barriers. But as soon as it was on its feet it was turned into a constituent assembly with all the powers of government. which were never included in the 1257 Treaty of Rome.

Schools have sprung up in which professors run an eraser over the blackboards of history and traditions. teaching that rootlessness and loyalty to no flag or country will bring utopia.

Few Europeans bothered to ask. "how did we get here?" â\200\235 until they had passed the point of no return. Americans did not ask because they do not know they are next in line. Approval of burning the national flag may be part of the conditioning process.

The new world order. which was created at the American taxpayers expense. is due to become official in 1982, which coincides with America's presidential election.

GERMAN BORDER QUESTION

BY PAT BUCHANAN

Noted American Columnist

THE EMINENT American syndicated columnist. PAT BUCHANAN. makes a powerful and earnest appeal for justice and commonsense to prevail in the Four-Power Talks to take place on the question of resolving Germany's borders

FROM the New York Times to the Polish foreign ministry. from The Economist to Moscow come new demands that Germany. before reunification. renounce all claims to its lost eastern territory.

This will be the first issue in the Four Power meeting on the future of Germany. For once. the United States should not permit itself to be used. either by envious and fearful allies or by Russians with a bad conscience and a bloody history.

To understand what is at issue. President Bush should spend a few hours with â\200\234Nemesis at Potsdamâ\200\235 by Alfred de Zayas (University of Nebraska Press), the story of what happened in the East.

The story begins in the fall of 1944. in a village of East Prussia called Nemmersdorf. overrun by the Red Army in its first thrust into German territory.

When the Wehrmacht drove the Reds out after 48 hours. what they found prepared them for what was to come.

The Russians had gone berserk. German women were crucified on the sides of barns. French prisoners of war had been murdered. Refugees had been run over by tanks. Not a single civilian was found alive. Every German girl over 8 and every woman had been raped.

What Katyn means to Poles. Nemmersdorf means to Germans. T

Soviet Army Capt. Alexander Solzhenitzyn. whose unit struck East Prussia in January 1945, wrote. â\200\234All of us knew very well that if the girls were German they could be raped and then shot.â\200\235

With the blood lustâ\200\231 of Pravda's crazed German-hater Ilya Ehrenberg ringing in their ears. Red Army troops re-enacted Nemmersdorf in town after town. As word of the terror spread. millions of German civilians fled to Baltic ports.

Between 20 000 and 25 000 refugees drowned in the Baltic. as Soviet planes and submarines attacked refugee ships. On April 14. 1945, the Goya went down with 7 000 people crammed on its decks. the greatest sea disaster in history.

Yet at war's end. in East Europe. in the German provinces of East Prussia. Eastern Pomerania. Danzig. East Brandenburg. Silesia and the Sudetenland, more than 16 million Germans remained.

At Potsdam. Harry Truman and Winston Churchill. faithful to the evil bargain at Yalta. agreed to the removal of several million from territories ceded to Stalin. But Moscow. its puppet regimes in Warsaw Prague began mass deportation of all Germans from all lands east of the line formed by the Oder and western Neisse rivers Whole villages and towns were given hours to pack. then shoved on the roads and driven westward. Cattle trucks and trains arriving in Berlin offloaded cargoes of dead children. of girls and women robbed. beaten and raped.

From the Sudetenland. Czech authorities forced out 3 million Germans. shoving them into the Russian and U.S. zones. In Lambsdorf camp in upper Silesia. of 8 064 German prisoners. 6 488 died. including 628 children.

The courageous British journalist. Victor Gollancz (to whom Mr de Zayas dedicates his book). himself a Jew. protested that the Allies were treating German civilians as Heinrich Himmler had treated the Jews.

Bertrand Russell called it extermination.

No one seeing its horrors firsthand. wrote Anne O'Hare McCormick in The New York Times. can doubt that it is a crime against humanity.

F.W.Voigt of the Manchester Guardian wrote of one incident in July 1945, when a factory explosion set off a Czech program in which German women and children were hurled from bridges. with 2 000 to 3 000 massacred.

When all the atrocities ended. 2 million were dead. and the greatest exodus in history had driven 14 million Germans out of lands their ancestors had inhabited for over a thousand years.

With pathetic protest from Washington and London, one-fourth of Germany was amputated. Allies who had fought the war under the banner of the Atlantic Charter saw it spat upon. even as Woodrow Wilson's 14 Points had been spat upon by the vindictive victors of Versailles.

Which brings us to the Four Power talks on Germany.

FOUR POWER TALKS

Versailles in 1918 led directly to Munich. Teheran in 1943. and Yalta and Potsdam in 1945. led to 45 years of the Cold War. This time. the United States must not lose the peace.

This time we must not listen to the German-haters. This time. peace must reflect our values and our interests. first and foremost. After all. we won the Cold War.

How should we then conduct ourselves in the Four Power talks?

many down independent of Moscow with its selfish interest in not seeing its crimes exposed.

The world knows all about what was done by the Germans: it knows nothing of what was done to the Germans. Yet those crimes live in the hearts of that people. as Pearl Harbour and Bataan live in ours.

When the border issue is raised. the United States should commit itself to peaceful resolution of the question and permit the German people a world wide hearing for their case.

NO cause of ours is served by a midnight KGB-style burial of the crimes of the East. If we cannot undo history. it we cannot repeal the crimes of 1945 and 1946.
we can see too that they are not forever erased from the memory of man.

A strong. united. free Germany in the heart of Europe will be as great a triumph for America as a strong free Japan in the Far East. It will enable us to declare victory in the Cold War. and come home.

Let magnanimity. not vindictiveness. be our guide.
Standing up for Germany's legitimate interests in these Four Power talks is really standing up for our own. o

TERRE'BLANCHE WARNS GOVT
AND ANC

IF the African National Congress continued its armed struggle. the Afrikaner Weerstandsbeweging would meet it head-on with an armed struggle of its own. AWB leader. Mr Eugene Terre'Blanche. said.

Speaking to the press about the formation of armed Boere commandos. Mr Terre'Blanche said these commando units would be used against anyone who tried with violence to remove the freedom of the volk.

ANC deputy leader. Mr Nelson Mandela. had reaffirmed his commitment to the armed struggle. which.
Mr Terre'Blanche said. was not aimed at the security forces. but at women and children. i

My message to the ANC is that if it persists with its armed struggle. we will meet it head-on.

There is only one large Right-wing movement which has through the years. been preparing itself for the collapse of law and order and it's the AWB."

Mr Terre'Blanche said every AWB structure in every town in South Africa had organised itself into commando units in accordance with his order of three weeks ago.

The AWB's goals remained the same as they had always been.

FIFTY NEW COMMANDOS

FIFTY new Afrikaner Weerstandsbeweging (AWB) commandos will be estabiished in coming weeks by the 300 officers who attended & training course on AWB-leader Mr Eugene Jerre' Blanche's farm outside Vventersdorp on May 11.

Mr Terre'Blanche told his followers and local and international media who were invited to view the train-ing for the first time that the ofticers had come from â\200\234all over the countryâ\200\235 (the Cape. the Free State. Natal. Northern Transvaal and Namibia) and would return to their homes to strengthen local commangdos and establish new ones.

THIRD WAR OF FREEDOM DECLARED

MORE than 150 000 Whites crowded into the amphitheatre at the Voortrekker Monument in Pretoria on government's policies of â\200\234reformâ\204¢ and change

May 26 to reatim then resistance 10 the: De Klerk

Conservative Party leader Dr Andries Treurnicht issued a blunt warning to the Government: â\200\234Don't force us. On all roads we refuse to travel. If you do, we will stand in your way and dare you to walk over us.â\200\235

Dr Treurnicht further warned:

â\200\234Don't underestimate us. We are serious. There is no boat waiting for us in the harbour.â\200\235

Speaking against the backdrop of a huge banner proclaiming: The Third War of Freedom has begun!
he said:

"We will not allow the Government to force integration down our throats.â\200\235

Quoting a speech made by former Prime Minister D.F. Malan at the same venue 42 years ago, the CP leader said it would be â\200\234easier to stop the ocean with a spoon than to halt our move towards freedom.

He said the Government was looking for trouble if it forced a unitary South Africa.

â\200\234We warn: Do not force our people into that situation. Do not force our people to stand in your path and to challenge you to walk over us. As Van Wyk Louw said: â\200\230If you put a proud nation in chains, uprising against the law becomes its right.â\200\235

The Conservative Party refused to accept Mr de Klerk's claim that the political changes brought about in recent weeks were irreversible. It will have to be reversed.â\200\235 he said.

He said that if the Government ignored laws which protected an own community life, then it would create chaos and it must expect individuals and groups of people to take steps for their own protection, as has already happened in various places.

I therefore have no problem with people protecting themselves in co-operation with the police.

ANC ATTACKED =

Dr Treurnicht attacked the ANC in the angriest terms he has yet used.

The ANC hates the Boer people and the white nation. They demand our land. They reject our right to exist. But the Government still sees its way clear to reach a negotiated consensus agreement with them, he said.

To cries of "never, never, never" from the crowd. Dr Treurnicht said the unbanned South African Communist Party would have the power over the future of the Voortrekker Nation itself.

He demanded of the Government "With what it do you claim that other people must not take the law into their own hands when you yourself discard the laws?"

Dr Treurnicht accused the Government of acting dictatorially in contradiction with its election mandate by forcing the country towards integration in the new South Africa.

"The Government wants to move away from its immoral position, it must speedily call a general election for the whites and put its integration and abdication politics to the voters. Is it not possible that the day will come when the South African security forces are possibly with ANC members integrated into them?"

will be misused to suppress our people? You are going to force the new South Africa with violence!" he told the Government.

"You no longer know the depth of conviction, willpower, belief, resistance potential, endurance and hardheaded stubbornness of many of your people," he added.

"We say to you today: our national movement for freedom in our own fatherland is irreversible. You will be able to prevent it. You do not have enough jails to imprison Afrikaner nationalism."

SOLEMN UNDERTAKING

Dr Treurnicht read a "solemn undertaking" to which the crowd verbally pledged themselves.

The pledge was couched in religious terms and stated: "We believe we have a just claim to separate freedom and survival: we claim the right to rule ourselves in our own fatherland."

The huge crowd undertook not to accept the threatened destruction of our nation's freedom, but will fight to restore that which has already been unjustly given away".

The Conservative Party has adopted a Freedom Manifesto which requests our leader and our party to call upon the entire people to the freedom struggle and to use all available means in the struggle to realise this ideal.
