

THE 13th WORLD FESTIVAL OF YOUTH AND STUDENTS

Pyongyang 1-8 July, 1989

Dear Sir,

Please accept warm greetings from the Permanent Commission of the International Preparatory Committee for the 13th World Festival of Youth and Students.

We take great pleasure in inviting you as a guest of honour to the 13th World Festival of Youth and Students to be held in Pyongyang, capital of the DPPJC on 1-8 of July, 1989.

For the first time the WFYS will be held in Asia, which promises to add new forces and new dimensions to the festival movement.

Youth and students from every corner of the globe will gather in Pyongyang under the slogan "For Anti-Imperialist Solidarity, Peace and Friendship".

They will discuss a wide range of issues relevant to the youth of today and all humanity. The 4th IPC meeting has adopted a festival programme which will provide a structure for a very broad detailed discussion on issues such as peace, security, nuclear disarmament, independence, the environment, a New International Economic Order, solidarity, rights of women, youth and children to name a few. The venue of the Festival will provide for a rich and exciting cultural and sports programme with artistic performers and athletes from around the world.

In preparation for the Festival over 150 National delegations will be invited to Pyongyang. In these countries youth and students with different ideological, political, religious, cultural orientations are making preparations for broad and representative delegations to this largest forum of youth and students. Over 100 international and regional organizations are being invited as well as a number of intergovernmental bodies, to further broaden the scope of the festival.

One of the time-honoured traditions of the Festival is to invite guests of honour to take part in the festival. Outstanding public and state figures have an important role to play in the development of the festival and its program by lending their rich experience, knowledge and understanding of our dynamic world, and to present opinions and views in various events of the festival programme.

We wish to meet you at the Festival and together to participate in its success. Please send correspondence to the PC.
