```
APIM8G_ 31y
RAND DAILY MAIL, Wednesday, March 14, 1984
No injuries onâ\200\231
detaineeâ\200\231s face, is +
court
JOHN MOJAPELO
~ " Pretorla Bureau
TWO magistrates and 2\ a gmce station commander 1d the Pretoria Supreme Court yesterday they had not seen any injuries om
the face of the former student leader Mr Auret van ~, \hat{a}200\230Igeeehx\hat{a}\200\230-::len a f\hat{a}\200\230;vlvl dneg{\hat{a}\200\230sl aftger
L been allegedly tortured
w Mr O A de Meyer, the for-Chief Magistrate of Ben-
,Mr P C vanDer Merwe, a
ohannesburg magistrate, g::rajor D P Combrink, the station »commander - station, were
dence before Mr
ustice C F Eloff.
Mr Van Heerden, 29, of Johamaburgi'a former president of the National U of South African Students, alleged he had been maltreated tortured while held by ~Vorster and the Ben-
w station from Sep-
. 24, 1981 to July 9, 1982.
Mr Van Heerden is suing 10
security policemen for R113 000 in their private capacities. .
& Mr De ! , who was
tness for the
lice, said he had Van Heerden.at
t lice station
was held under the Terrorism Act.
```

Van Heerden had no laints or uests to

to the magistrate.

De Meyer said he have seen if Mr Van had a black eye, a
the bridge of his

>

e

= |
I

i

5

MAJOR D P COMBRINK
'} saw no injuriesâ\200\231

Mr De Meyer said he had been told on November 24 and 26 that Mr Van Heerden was not available as he had been taken out by the Security Police for investigation.

He was also aware of a

Те

i ul

at Mr Van Heerden was not available at the police sta

tem; made to hide Mr Van Heerden from him. -

The Johannesburg magistrate, Mr Van der Merwe, said he had visited Mr Van Heerden while he was detained at John Vorster uare.

Mr Van der Merwe said on two occasions he had been told Mr Van heerden was not .

available because he had been taken out for investigation.

He had a; the explanation without making any further inguiries.

He said he had not seen any

ble facial injuries.
. Mr Van Heerden had not compiained to him.

Mr Van Heerden is bringing the action Lieutenant-Colonel ur Benoni Cronwright, Mals

Abrie, Maj J Visser, Maj P P Olivier, Warrant-Officer D J Fourie, W/O gawme; Phillip Prince, ap Botes, Hendrik Pitout, and Lieut Johan van Aswegen. Lt Van Aswegen is no longer a policeman.

The hearing continges today.

GIBSON THULA:

o O, A geÂS; [ORE

THE struggle for control of 13 major battle for wntfol with two rival bottle stores on the East Rand of- $^\prime$ feredontendermaylieoverâ\200\224with

: holders â\200\224 Mr Motlhapblack business groups, one 2 break- . away of the other, fighting for control ing, Mr Absalom Khu-_ a dissident group of black businessmen gaining control of the bottle

malo, Mr Steve Namane and M1 Christoepher «Ndithaâ\200\235 Sibeko â\200\224 stores through the controversial 51-49 percent black-white partnership contract.

share 51 percent of the shares while Mrs Lou-

The outlets are now the scene of a $a\200\224$ $\-\201\alpha\200\224$

Mr Gilbert Motlhaping, who leads the five businessmen who have broken from Mr Gibson Thulaâ\200\231s S and H Synyesterday that his group had finally provided funds for the acquisition of the outlets.

rens enjoys 49 percent.. In effect she controls the bw. . B

But Mr Thula yesterday discounted the claims by Mr Motlhaping and said there was no way his new rival could have bought the outlets without his consent, and that of the | other partners in the original syndicate. And in the middle of the new development is

Mrs Rika Lourens, who has been battling to get into this syndicate and was previously spurned. She now enjoys 49 percent shares in the venture, and by virtue of this becomes the major shareholder of the group. The four black share-

The original syndicate led by Mr Thula had refused any white participation through this partnership contract, but had wanted direct loans from financial institutions. Several approaches apparently fell through and the syndicate was in a CTisis situation.

This could have given Mirs Lourens, waiting on the sidelines, the opportunity and when ap- \hat{A}^{c} proached immediately offered the loan $-\hat{a}\setminus200\setminus224$ but in terms of - the 51-49 percent partnership contract. / its ranks, and would continue to seek an alli- ance with other organi-Mr Hendrickse was speaking shortly after the announcement that a group of Indian politicians from the Transvaal have decided to join the Labour Party. Among the group is Mr Salem Abram-Mayet, a member of the Presidentâ\200\231s Council.

He said the pnty would accept them as -members, although the matter will still have to be discussed at the executive committee meeting in Cape Town at in\2021e end of the month. -

The acceptance of other racial groups into the party, he said, was not an attempt at forming a Labour Party dominated alliance.

coming into the organx- sation as individuals and not as groups. We already have white and African members, a\200\235 Mr Hendrickse said.

He would continue in his efforts to forge links with other even if this'did not lead to the formatlon of a structured alliance.

He added: $\hat{a}\200\2340f$ course Indian and coloured people within the organisation will participate in elections for their respective chambers under _ the tricameral Patha-

Hdwever, the Labour Party would not participat& in hOIneland poh tics bwgm it restricted

.its participation to the new Parhament

- ! the estab-
- * lishment of an alliance, hesn&dhewouldnotixn& tiate such an alliance but wonidnï¬\202ieiâ\200\231itdevelopâ\200\224 edofitsown. . â\200\234I think it is something that must develop.

REV HENDRICKSE

I still feel that an alliance has a role to play in the South African context, $\hat{a}\200\235$ he said.

He did not. see the campaign by the United Democratic Front (UDF) to boycott the forthoommgelectlonsï¬\201s a serious threat to his party \hat{a} \200\231s plans.

et incit o W5 A - -

PSS

:Néiâ\200\224al Me.r_gg;ykWeQnesday, March 14, 1984

o et e S L NS o