```
#3
' ATP (:2 30133333333; 9, 0Q
(U ()4;
x#
?
′3, 3
g?xziidid$3iiixduiiidizifozLxgkii$kikhxlkixuiilmiikdkn1iuhnkiilia3kig%%
as E
3 AFRICAN hgTIONAL CONGRESS ( SOUTH AFRICA ) $
q: (43
52% E
9? ca
$ 9::
w (.5
95 93: o
2 g EEEEEELAF3EE&E?ETEEEJELS$BEEEEE%EQEELJUEEE:i233)n g 49 ' 99
r" m 4: (65
g %
W
. 912′
w a 35
. (.4
$ Q
9: k:
g 3
(63 AS OBSERVED MED REPORTED BI TIE OFFICIAL PRESS IN SOUTH AFRICA 2;; 3 AND ELSENZERE g
3;: us
% 3
3; cc
(.4?
W
i?
COMPILED MU.) REPRODUCED BY MIC DERLREEENTS
OF INTERN; TIONAL AFFAIRS AND THE 53.1.13.
L s A K A
Map:
08.02.83.
?.?.il-fafsiiil C8Sf$ 92:1: i 21-243 8% 81%; $81" $43 S$f-aifi . f. iii:
531-888-489 258% fsff%?ifz'8$;%fs $$$$$f; %2.%1'Q% 8%??213138 5%??Sff??%"8%f 11
iuIAIEuLA? ..... POJER TO I333 PEOPLEE ffffiifffg-les
f, 32 Sf.
```

CIA SAID TO FIND SOUTH AFRICAN REBELS STRONGER. UEIGHING NEW TARGETS A Washington lobby group that has previously obtained sensitive classified documents says it has been given a U.S. intelligence report that warns that the African National Con.eTess, the main guerrilla group operating in South Africa, is gaining strength and is weighing a more militant strategy involving attacks on white oiviliah targets. A second document made available to The Washington Post by Trans-Africa, a black American lobby group on African affairs, suggests that the whiteeminority government in South Africa is deliberating suppression of reliable reports of successful guerrilla attacks to protect white morale.

- That report is contained in what Trans-Africa describes as a copy of la page from the April 15, 1982, National Intelligence Daily, a highly classified compilation of current intelligence information from the CIA, the Defense Intelligence Agency, the National Security Agency and other intelligence sources.

It is circulated by the CIA director, as head of U.S. intelligence, to a limited number of senior policy makers in the White House, the Cabinet and elsewhere in Washington and to certain military commanders overseas. The daily summary said Pretoria was considering new and stricter limitations on publicizing terrorist attacks because "the ANC benefits from um Eress covela 5e of its attacks." That, in turn, the summary said, "will strengthen the militants in the ANC who want the group to engage in Spectacular attacks ageing t whiteza"

Supporting that assessment is what Trans-Africa Director Randall Robinson said was an extensive CIA report on the outlawed nationalist group. Robinson, who said the report came into his hands in April, refused to make portions-of it available for publication. He said they dealt with specific personalities and bases of the ANC. Separate CIA spokesmen, making what each called the agency's "usual" response to press queries, refused last week to confirm or deny the existence or the reported contents Of the excerpt from the intelligence daily as well as the CIA report. In b0th eases, the spokesmen initially asked for details of the documents and responded several hours later. Yesterdayf a men identifying himself as George Sehwegmann, from the I'CIh's Office of Physical Security, telephoned'to inquire about the page of the April 15 intelligence s nary. He said he had been advised by the agency's Department of Public hf airs Of the ccpy. He was told that it no longer Was in the reporter's possession. Other sources in a poSition to be aware of the authenticity Of the documents declined to challenge them. In Hay 1981; Irens-Afriee leaked to the press classified State Depertment documents on Africa policy that U.S. Officials later acknowledged to be valid; The forecast in the alleged CIA report is for "more persistent and widespread racial unrest" in South Africa as the ANC moves against whites' "lives, property and security" to fOroe them to face up to the need for change. ,The authorities are forseen introducing more ,repressive measures and mounting further military operations against the groupts installations in neighboring states; I ' 4 I The report, a chronicle of the tmoup from its beginnings in the early part of this century through its current and considerable revival after the suppression of the Soweto riots of 1976, echoes widely accepted assessments within academic and business circles here of the ANC$s burgeoning strengtho' '1 ' i't In its review of the ANC's major sabotage Operations of the last two years, the report cites "improVed efficiency and coordination" of the

In its review of the ANC's major sabotage Operations of the last two years, the report cites "improVed efficiency and coordination" of the groups's Operations between 1980 and 1981, and an increase from 10 to 40 in major attacks against government and eeonmmic targets in that periOd. . I '-

"It is clear!" the report said! that the ANC "could have inflicted a large number of white' canualties if had chosen to do so". :

Pointing to ehanfes in the group's operations, the report se 3 that "terrorist teams are now beginning to reMain (in South Africa) for longer periods of time, sometimes carrying out several assignments before finally leaving". . . ' '

h: It estimates that the 3th has 1,000 to 2,000 activevmembers, meaning; 'those living outsi&e South Africa who_have receited'military training, and perhaps 2,000 to 3,00 others inside South Africa who secretly belong to the banned organisation.

.3.

The growing power of the militants in the groupls leadership, most of whom joined in a major influx after the Soweto riots, "may lead to ... changes in the group's strategy," the study says, noting that many younger members have objected to what they considered to be the fcaren ful" approach of the more traditional leaders to military operations inside South Africa.

While it predicts "increasing success" for the ANC in filling the vacuum in leadership in South Africa left after the death in custody of black activist Steve Bike, and the failure of the government to implement meaningful reforms, ehe study judges that the group will pose. a "serious threat to white control" in South Africa only if it develops "an effective underground political organisation" inside the country. The ANC has "a long way to go before it can claim a significant poli-$3651 network" inside the country deepite bolls showing it as the most popelar black movement among South Africa's 20 million blacks.

' THE WASHINGTON POST .. 3 NOV. 1982

U.S. SENDS ENVOYS TO BOLSQER POLICY IN SOULJERN AFRICA With negotiations for Namibian independence from South Africa stalled over the iSSue of Cuban troops in Angola, the Reagan administration has undertaken a series of high-level diplomatic contacts designed to selvage its southern Africa Policy; '

The contacts include an unpublieised visit to Africa in September by Central Intelligence Agency Director William Casey, Assistant Seeretary of State Chester Crooker's trip to Paris and London last month, and a coming African tour by Vice President George Bush. Administration strategists believe that visible progress toward ending the impass over Namibia, also known as South-West Africa, is necessary to protect U.S. interests in the region and to blunt rising criticism from both conservative Republicans and foreign governments.

"There's stirring on the left and stirring on the right," Said one State Department official. "The Europeans are saying if you.guys hadn't interposed the Cuban issue Namibian independence would move forward. And our own right wing believes that we haven't taken UNITA into account."

The future of UNITA, the preeWOstern guerrilla movement fighting the Angolan government, was raised in a secret letter last month to Natio-_ nal Security Adviser William Clark by members of the conservative

4 1,

The countries of Southern Africa are embroiled, att Jle present time, in an undeclared war launched by the Pretoria regime. Whether it be in Mozambique and Angola, Lesothe er Zimbabwe, Botswana or Zambia, Seychelles,. Ihumitius or ILdrgascar, the apartheid monster is involved in a deliberate eaupaign of aggression and destdbilisatipn. During these campaigns of murder and pillage, our people heve been slaughtered in cold blood and have even had their bodies desecrated. ' The enemy has stated the purposes of this aggression quite clearly, when it has repeatedly proclaimed its intentien to dot against these countries so long as they allhw the ANC to be present Within their territories. Cleerlyg therefore, the peoples of Southern Africa are having to pay the supreme sacrifice, hs they have done and are doing in Angola, Lesotho,1f# szambique, Zimbabwe and elsewhere in the region, because they are Zigaf? sing to bow ddwn to the demands of the enemyjto have the ANC and SW of Namibia uprooted and. expelled from this region. a 'x

The offer made a few days back by the racist Prime Minister Botha to the independent states of Southern Africa, for these states to sign nonaggression paCtS with apel wrtheid South Africa, constitutes part of this offensive designed to impose Pretoria's will on these states. Bethe is the persistent aggressor. No African country has fixed a single bullet across its borders into South Afgiea, heAndtyethotha is inviting the targets to sign a non-aggression_pact with the aggressor. _If he believes in non-aggression, Why does he not stop aggression? If he believes in aggression, how will a non-eggression pact st0p him? During the past yeer, this hegime has been enceuraged in its counteroffensive by the criminal activities of Zionist Israel against the people of Lebanon ahthhlestinian refugees in the t country and the Palestinian liberation Organisation, the PLO. IAfter repeated raids, aggression into lebanon-during the course of which the Zionist Israeli tr00ps merci-; lessly butchered both the Iebenese and Palestinians' and sought to destroy whole citiesg the Zionist ultimately occupied virtually the whole of Beirut and other parts of Iebanon.

Apart from anything else, the Pretoria regime used this experience to m prepare the white South. African population for similar campaigns of e terror against the peoples of Southern Africa, as happened and is te set a Namibian independence plan into motion, "we will need a cre-Eible Ehgoian commitment for a parallel framework of Cuban withdrawal." Crocker and other Reagan advisers say a resolution of both issues is necessary to achieve regional stability, and they see stability as the most effective barrier to expanding Soviet influence.

The trips by senior officials are designed to win support for that policy by offering both political and economic inducements. The vice president's.good-will journey to seven African nations, focusing on economic issues, is the flip side of Casey's securityeorientedieonn sultations, while Crocker's European talks centered on breaking the gNamibian deadlock.

Although the CIA refuses to comment on Casey's trip, UgS. sources say he consulted intelligence chiefs of key African countries such as Nigeria, Zaire, Zambia and Mozambique-

In South Africa, he reportedly met with Prime Minister P.N. Botha, and Foreign Minister Pik Botha as well as Defense Minister Magnus Malan and top military officers.

During those talks, South Africa urged that the current negotiations be broadened to encompa 35 the issue of infiltration across its borders by the African National Congress, an outlawed organisation that enjoys wide Support among blacks. In exchange for a ban on an ANC guerrilla presence in surrounding countries - including Angola; where the movement has important training facilities-South Africa hinted it would curb its own military actions.

American officials are treating the ANC question eerily, saying privately that while there is sympathy in Washington for South Africa's security problems, the United States cannot afford to "touch" the issue at this critical point in the Namibian talks. Instead, Washington is addressing Pretoria's concerns by impniving bilateral relations. It is relaxing restrictions on exports to South African government entin ties including the military and police.

The United States has reassured South Africa that it will not recogn nize the Angolan government until Cuban troops leave. In eight meetings with Angolan officials - the most recent between Secretary of State Shultz and Angolan Foreign Minister Paulo Jorge on Oct. 5 - the United States has pressed for the phased withdrawal of the estimated 15,000 to 20,000 Cubans.

Without firmer assurances against South Afriean raids. Angola has so far been-unwilling to take the "leap of faith" U.S. officials say is necessary to conclude an agreement. Following Crooker's latest discussions with French and British negotiators, the State Department is considering new preposels, including a potential "third'force" to replace the Cubans, security and economic assistance guarantees and formal U.S. recognition.

The French are tentatively planning toddispatch envoys to the Angolan capital of Luanda to pave the way for another visit by U;Sa delegation. (1'hlSHINGTONPOST"11.03. 82.)

ANC POLITICAL MOBILISATION AND ITS GROWING SUPthT INS:DE SOUTH AFRICA. After five years as Soweto's political.supreme, Dr Motlana believes his support and influence is collapsing. And he believes the support of other moderate leaders is disappearing along side his. "People are fast becoming disillusioned with the leadership of those who say peaces ful change is still possible". The words would sound more_comfortable coming from a radical critic of the moderate Soweto doctor, who shot to fame as the head of the Black'Parents Association in 1976. But they are Motlana's own. "We live within the system and are part and parcel of it. We become despised because of eur links with it. 'The only people who appear to buck the system are the African National Congress".

Motlane himself is no stranger to ANC activity s.in his youth more than a decade before the organiSation's banning in 1960, Motlana worked as an ANC organiser and he is one of many leading black figures in South African who trace their political lineage back to the earlier, unbanned ANC. '

From Chief Buthelezi (who claims allegiance" with the 'feuhding fathers' of the movement) to his archrrivals, the Black Consciousness organisations (who claim allegiance to the 'pure' African netiohelism of the ANC Youth League of the 1940s), all look to the ANC as their political alma mater, o . . . - .

But it is not to these "eerlier' ANCs that Motlan has seen his support slipping away. It is to the ANC of the Freedom Charter, of sabotage acts against Sasol, Soekmekaar police station and the Voortrekkerhoogte military base.. And to a growing movement inside the country which broadly defines_itself as 'democratio' and, without directly aligning itself with the organisation - an unwise alignment to Openlyjedmit, given the severe penaltioes it brings - advocates the policies laid out in the Freedom Charter. While many may find suggestions of growing support for the ANC difficult to digest, some statistics seem to bear out Hotlana's contention.

t A recent survey carried out by the Star newspaper throughout the country put the question to hundreds of black South Africans: "If uryou could vote candidates to Parliament today, who would you.vote for?" Cut any way - by language, job category, age or geographically e the ANC came out well ahead of its rivals, both banned and legal. No matter how unpalatable, such support is significant given that the ANC has spent 20 of its 70 years officially nonrexistent in South hafrica t At the funeral of one of the three ANC gunmen killed during the Silverton siege, a senior policeman was asked to estimate the numn ber of mourners. "Man, after 10,000 we just stopped cownting," he replied.

t Only five weeks ago, former Robben Island prisoner and Durban attorney, Griffiths Mxenge, was buried in thohCiskei. "It wasn't a funeral, it was like an ARC gathering," the Tribune was told afterwards. Estimates of the crowes there varioa from between ._10,000 and 20,000.

joeiPaahla, President of the Black University Studend Organisation, Azaso, explains the upsurge of student radicalism u and that of growing numbers of black trade union members:

"As we have seen, notably in Zimbabwe, the more intransigent the ruling group, the more people identify with the organisations which appear likely to prove a match for that intransigence." He believes prsctiF cal experience too is teaching workers in South Africa a new end radical attitude towards the status quo. "When there is a strike, it is not the company's officials who come in to control the workers, it is the police - the government's police. And the workers begin to realise that to improve their working conditions and their wages, they also need to change the political situation in this country."

Paahla, a 25-yearuold Durban medical student, who took over Azaso as it was breaking its ties with conventional Black Consciousness (BC), believes the new mood of militanoy is also partly a result of the failure of BC organisations to "deliver the goodsi.a "After the bannings of 19 BC organisations in October 1977, people looked back to review what they had achieved. what they saw was that the BC

Organisations has achieved less mass mobilisation with-their pure, ideological political stance than the Congress ergs.nisations Ihad in the 1950s when they organised around more basic is _sues like bus fare increases, removals and the pass laws."

The largely successful campaign to boycott the South African Indian Council lections bears him out. Instead of merely advocating a boy-.oott, AntiuSAIC Committees in botl1 the Transvaal_ _and Natal conducted their.operations almost like elections campaigns, canvassing door to door and speaking to almost every voter in many eenstituencies. "We were very unsure of the reSponse when we started 1n June. " Dr. Essop Jassat, chairman of thd Trangvall AntiuSAIC Committee, said this week. "We were amazed by the reaction. After 20 years of political vacuum in the Indian cemmunity, and without a political organisation to guid1 them, the Ipeeple shewed they eould do the right thing. The eampaign organise rs posed, as an alternative to the SAIC, the Freedom Charter, a blueprint for a future South Africa, endorsed 26 years ago By the thenQiegal AHC and white; eoloured and Indian congrasses. M.J.. Naidee, vice president of 116 Natal Indian Congress, which spearheaded the Anti-SAIC Campaign in Natal, believes that even the campaign's clearly successful result might not give 1 61ear demonstration of radical black opposition to apartheid; In a society where advocates of certain political attitudes were prohibited from mobilising support, those allowed to operate could gain an unreal1stie level of support, he said. "In Rhodesla, Muzorewa carried the day in the first election. He get well over 50% of the vote. One would have thought, well, that's the attitude of the people. But a year later he was swept off the face of Rhodesia - but only when people felt safe enough to vote openly.A The same situation applied in Sou.th .m Africa. I'm satisfle1 that if the ANC was given .the sort of freedom to participate in elections that Mugabe and company had, they'd sweep the board."7

Young Soweto sthdents, tad; hear witness to the elimbing support for I the TANG policies; Since 1976, many: have 10011214855 them asthe - "vanguard of the etruggle" but today they deny this: : "Today we realise that our struggle must OL base" on the working classes, not on intellectuals, " said one veteran of 1976 and, more recently, of the Antl-Republic Day activities of last year. Among the men he looks to today for leadershlp are former law partners Nelson Mandela and Oliver Tambo..

Mahdela was sentenced to life imprisonment en Robben Island and was first leader of the ANC's military wing, Umkhonto We Sizwe. Tambo - referred to by some students and his colleagues as "The'President" - is the ANC's president and is credited with leading the reconstructioh'offthe movement after its virtual destruction by the authorities in the early Sixties.

White South Africa, unused to the startling frankness of many township conversations, would be even more shocked by the students' atti-' tudes to that 'arch-tlllaln1 of the South Africa political scene, the Communist Party. A student said that homeland independence and town-' ship community councils had taught him and millions of others to be less suspicious of socialism and its class interpretation of society's ills. "The Matanzima's and the Sebes taught us it was not a blackw white thing, it was not only whites exploiting and oppressing us. We looked for an explanation and found it in a class analysis of.society." The young man, son of a factory worker father and a street vendor mother, is not alone.....An indication of the feeling of some is given -by their adaptation of the old ANC song "We will follow Lutuli." The names-now sung in place of Lutuli's are those of Tambo, Mandela, Joe Slovo, Marx and Lenin. The singers are young and idealistic - but never naive. Even the youligest remembers his baptism of f1 re on the township streets in 1976. Their voices - like those of the followers of Mu5abe and Nkomo in what was once Rhodesia _ are seldom heard by their white compatriots.

One who has heard is Ton Vbsloo, editor of the Government-supporting Johannesburg newspaper, Beeld. "The day will come when a South African government will have to sit at a negotiating table with the ANC, " he wrote last year.

(SUNDAY TRIBUNE - 10.1.82)

In the nine months to December, the guerrilla afmy'Umkhonto We Sizwe, was responsible for the vast majority of more than 50 attacks and sabotage actions _ a marked escalation on previous levels. And the year saw a remarkable mobilisation around the Freedom Charter, the ANC's 'minimum pfogramme' in protest to the'ZOth Anniversary of the Republic and the ethnic South African Indian Ceuneil elections. There -has also been continuous change in the ANC.

Since. it laid down its roots in 1912, it has undergone several changes. Now it has emerged. as an internationally respected. revolutionary black nationalist organisation. It heads an alliance with the South African 1-3.

..Jh

Communist Party and the South African Congress of Trade Unions, tr through which Iit is developing a significant 3.uerrilla capabillty. .- V.:

p 1

Both before and since its Ibannihg and near decimat ion in the Sixties, the ANC has tried to bring tor gether different race and class greups _in a common alliance _for the overthrew of the existing oreera It appears to be a matter of policy that potential allies in this quest should not be alienated, and the result is the aevelohmehtwef a strah uegy interleeking mass aetioh, worker aetion and armed Struggle.

1.. l.--.

The strategy, and the alliance behind it.? has given rise to twe charges: that the ARC is communist dominated and that it has diluted the necessary black nationalist content of the strugele in South Africa through working together with liberal er lCIt-wlng whites. Portraying the ANC as a communist front must be a prepaganda point for any government seeking Western suppert. While there is substantial suppert'for r.the SACP among exiled elements of the ANC, and some dual membership, . the allegation that the ARC is a eommunist front does not provide any useful insight into the nature ef this alliance.

Each.ergenisation has had a profound effect on t1 0 others' thinking. Through time, for example, the SACP has moved from a purely class analysis of South African society to one linking both racial and economic factors. On the other hand, the ANC has undergone a si-milar change in "ithinking from a purely nationalistic perspective.

IA hajor faeter ih this intellectual eonvergenee has been the close co-operation between the ANC, communists and trade unionists going 5haek beyond the formation of the Congress Alliance in the Fifties. That alliahee, headed by the ANC and comprising the South African Indian 'Cengress, the Coloured People's Congress and the (white) ECongress of Democrats, was, with the Freedom Charter, a major teeter in the PAC breakaway in 1958. The PAC's charge was that the ANC was diluting 'African nationalism and coming under the control of white communists. This allegation, though still strident from some black Consciousness elements and the PAC, appears to be decreasing. Membership of the ANC, like that of the SACP, is overwhelmingly African. The entire national zexecutive committee bf the ANC is Composed of Africans. Ahdy according to sources, seme whites and members ef ether racial groups have become members of the ANC. '1

1' In as much as it is pos ssiblette gau.ge intentions, they, toe, are. I overwhelmingly hationalist: that is, directed towards the mobilisation II ef the African majority to achieve majority rule. The role of the SACP has been most marked in two areas: the form tieh of the ANC'S military wing, Uhkhonto We Sizwe, and in worker organisations. A number of lean ding communists sit oh the revolutionary council, which oversees Umkhonto Ne Sizwe on behalf of the National Eieeutive Committee. Aha it is clear that South African communists have been helpful in ensuring the ANC's access to Eas tern-bloc arms.

The mood among the black working elgss in recent years has created a fertile ground forithegdevelOpment of a eommunist_allegiance. Many young blecks leaving the country are new said to be asking to be taken, first and foremost, into the Communist Party .3..; a generation educated through the liberal nationalism of black consciousness are now increasingly finding their answers in the MarxietaLeninist texts.e According to sourcesi'this'development will not_alter the.basic nature of the alliance. The ANC will remain,the mass movement, embracing all classes aha groups, while the SACP and SACTU will continue to further their own causes 0

What tentions may exist in tliis alliance have not revealed themselves since the midrseventies, whien a group of 8 ANC memoers broke away. Sources explain this absence of disruption by pointing to the development of a strongly collectivist leaders hip tradition in which personalities are not emphasised. i

With the PAC and the Black Consciousness Movement of Azania Still -tryu ing to get going te ehy meaningful extent, the ANC'S alliance has succeeded in gaining international support where it counts - inrthe socialist ooun cries and the Frontline States. But where support will count most is on the home front. As the recent clampdown on the ANC in Swaziland has demenetreted, to succeed, the ANC will have to give more meaning te its aSsertion that it will net rely on external baseS for its opeu rations to the extent that -other revolutionary movements have.

. - (THE STAR, 7.1.82)

Splattered across walls, houses ands hop facades in the street of Soweto and Johannesburg's Western Coloured Township is an array of African 4 National Congress slogans. At the fuherals of black leaders there is Mmore often-then not a display of the green, gold and black ANC colours _and flagg, and the hurried distribution of ANC pamphlets. Newepapers continually publish evidence of the dominance of ANC cadres and sympen thisers in Seuth Africais political trials and the esc alation in actie vities by the ANC's armed wing,l Umkhonto Ne Sizwe. For South Africa's black nationalist groups seeking the overthrow of South Africa's aparthied regime, is among the people, undergrounded.

And eommentaters, both inside and outside the country, as well as black people, have been particularly vocal recently on the ANC's' increasing strength and support, Afrikaner nOWSpaper editor Ton Vbsloo of Beeld, omouthpiece of P.W. Bothak National Party in the Transvaal, wrote earlier this year that the ANC preoably had the support of milliu ons of blacks, and that the Pretoria regime wohld one day have to sit at the conference table with the ANC, which it banned 21 years ago. And a week ago South Africa's largest daily newspaper, the conservative Star, published the results of a survey en black opinion in three major urban areas,

The survey showed the ANC would get 40% of t11e vote if blacks got a vote in Parliament today, the banned PAC 10%, the major internal Black Consciousness organisations 11% and Chief Buthelezi's ZuluFbased but nationally oriented Inkatha movement 21%. mhis means that the ANC has almost as much support as the other three organisations put together among blacks in the main urban centres. Jailed ANC leader . Nelson Mandela received t1e approval of 7670 of those interviewed, while PAC leader John Pokela got the approval of 18%. Particularly intereSu ting was the 46% vote the ANC got from the 16 and 25 years age greet, from which the bulk of any guerrilla force must necessarily come, against 6% for the PAC.

In recent months there has been increased cohesion around the principles consistent with t1 ose upheld by the ANC, and a surprisingly open assertion of them. This oecame most evident during the Anti-Republie Day campaign in May this year when communities mobilised around the Freedom Charter, an historic document adopted in 1955 by 3',000 delegates representing a number of organisations seeking a demeeratic South Africa and the ANC'S central policy statement. Black univers ity students, repref sented by the Azanian Students Organisation, 111ave in recent years a_een , moving increasingly towards a position aligned to the Charter. They have now joined their younger eovnterparts in the Congress of South'5i African Students who, since its inception a few years ago, have always upheld this position. Young blacks appear nbw to be saving that the original principles of black consciousness and solidarity with progressive whites seeking national liberation are not contradictory. It has, however, become necessary for them to distance themselves from the simplistic interpretation of black consciousness being espoused hy some eentemporary black consciousness leaders, for example in Azapo. 'The Freedom Charter is our guide', one student told me. A few weeks ago the Charter was adopted by tlle Indian community when it launched its campaign to boycott the November elections of the SAIC --a body supposed to represent the country's SOOiOOO strong Indian community. As one speaker told a packed hall for 2,000 in Johannesburg's Indian township of Lenasia 'We are pro-Freedom Charter.t our answer was given over 20 years ago'. "

8e while groups and individuals are not saying that they are ANC aligned, possibly because this carries with it heavy penalties, it is clear that the ANC is the organising, benefitting from and marshalling these ideological shifts. The same is true of the labour movement. All the major independent black union bodiEs, except the one which unofficially aeheres to the black consciousness philosophy, strictly follow a principled policy of nonsmaoialism. And some dieplay orgau nising policies and strategies similar to those of the undergrounddH South African Congress of Trade Unions, which forms part of the national liberation alliance headed by the ANC.. many of the unions see the workers struggle on the shop floor within the broader context of the political struggle, and a number have been bruised as a result. However groups hostile to the ANC cannot be eiscounted. These include Inkatha, which supports capitalism, as well as working within the pre-"sentiSyStem, and those propagating a simple Africanist position with a socialist colouring, such as the PAC, the exiled Black Consciousness Movement of Azania and Azapo. Inkatha's strength has been its organising abilities. However it has shown itself to be a poor fighter of thaehlaok cause. It is significant that according to-the Star survey, the ANC received more support that Inkatha both among the Zululs and in Durbank on Inkatha's home ground. The PAC, Azapo and the BCMA have all failed to mobilise or absorb people effectively, and, for the moment, are out of the reckoningh--spmething the PAC leadership appears not to disPute.' PAC leaders outside the country acknowledge that only the ANC is doing the fighting. And, inside the country, a number 05 people admitted that the ANC was now leading South Africa '3 liberation struggle uw an observation the? disputed a year ago.

THE SUNDAY HAIL, ZIMBABWE 4.10.81)

eThe traffic of Johannesburg btstled below, the noise occasionally interfering with the hushed voices of some young Sowetans discussing an organ nisation banned when they were mere toddlers -e the African National Congress of South Africa. 'There is a greater expression_of impatience among the people with the Way things are going.; As a result I feel the majority of people are ready for the ANC to step up their- military activities', said one. His friend butted in: 'The attack on the Voortrekkerhoogte military base really showed us that the ANC is not a 59th.

Before the recent escalations in Umkhonto We Sizwels military activities; many peoplelthought that the ANC had effectively died, but now we know that there has been a period of planning and the leaders weren't ljust sitting back'and enjoying high life in other countries. We need. to know what type of society to eXpect in post-liberation times and the ANC prevides a_vision of this in the Freedom Charter', said another. Their homments were illuminating for one trying to assess the_ANC's-o prominence. 'If people are increasingly accepting the necessity of , armed action in South Africa's liberation struggle -'and recent epi-Itnion-survey confirm that this is so --it is not really surprising-that the ANC is commanding growing respect and support in the black "cemmunity. The outlawed movement has emerged as the only organisation which, at this stage, is doing the fighting, and it clearly poses the "the greatest threat to the apartheid system - an assessment with which Pretoria appears to agreer

When the Botha regime talks of the enemy now, it talks only of the ANC. It pehlicly acknowledges that the ANC has a sophisticated organiSational structure; and that it's guerrillas are well-trained. In April this year security police HZ asserted that at the diSposal of ANC cadres were a sophisticated'system of under gground shelters, elaborated hidden caches where weapons were stored and made ready for use only on the day of attack and a dead letterdhox system of communication in which Underground hidden post boxes were used for messages, instructions and theyttransfers. In 1981, which has been characterised by. a.. marked 1.4% s.4JJ

Shescalation in guerrilla activities, the ANC's armed wing, Umhhonte We 3"Sihwe, has shown an-ability to operate in widely dispersed areas of the country in a co-ordinated manner. In addition, ANC cadres new appear to be defending and cemplementing mass strucgle with armed action by hitting targets in suppert of worker and community demenes:

For example, the bomb exploxions ou.tsidc Durban distributors of the Sigma and Leyland meter corporations came at a -time when the Workers at the twe meter plants had been locked in lacour disputes with management. Hewever, it is hafdly the ANC's improved military capabilities alone which has the Bethe regime so apparently concerned about the outlawed organisation. More important is the mobilisation which_is taking place on; an unprecedented scale" and the widespread. acceptance of ANC principles; For this is helping secure for the ANC a reliable base from which to conduct its military activities inside the country. Being the oldest hovement in organised black politics in Seuth Africa, the ANC's past experiences as well as its apparent political add ideological maturity, are also major pluses in its favour.

Long before its banning in 1960, the ANC received ideological contributions fhem-all sides, which were widely gebated in the organisation. In the 401s and 50's, its OWn youth league, headed by men like Nelson Mandela and OliverTTambo, now-the ANC's president, pushed a strong; Africanist line. The SA Communist Party and the South Affican Congress of Trade Unions also had close association with the ANC at the time. 119 result was the ENC adopting a elass-based analysis of South Africa's oppressive and exploitative structures consistent with the primary struggle for African national liberation.

In its 'Strategy andqmgticsl adopted in 1969, the ANC noted: 'The main content of the present stage of the South African revolution is the national liaeration of the largest and most oppressed group-the African people'. But it added: 'It must not be confused with the classical drive by an elitist group among the oppressed people to gain ascendancy so that they can replace the Oppressor in the exploitation of the masses'. By stressing that an integral part of its strategy 'invelves a stimulation and deepening of national confidence, national pride and national assertiveness', the ANC's policy is compatible with black eonseiousness' primary principles. In addition, the ANC's_strict "policy of non-raoialism within its own ranks has meant that the ANC has been able to embrace pregressives in all race and economic class groups. As SUCH it poses a total challenge to the South African system. The ANC's leaders, such as Oliver Tambo, as well as the imprisoned Nelsen Mandela, Govan Mbeki and Walter Sisulu., are regarded as both _national and international symbols of liberation.: This is illustrated by the support given, both inside and eutside the country to the Free Mandela Campaign, the nomination of Mandela as the Chancellor of London Univefsitt and the recent bestowal of the Freedom of the City of Glasgow on the imprisoned leader. he ARC is also commanding grewing respect, 'Or at least aeknOWledgement, in the international community. It has a h presence in eVor 30 cohntrics, many of which officially recognise it. And recently a number of Uhited States multinational invited, for the ..first-time, ARC leaders to a meeting to discuss South Africa. But the standards which are likely to determine which group gains the revolutionary loyalties of the South African_people are best expressed by Vietnamese revolutionary, Le Duan:

'A method, a form of struggle can only be reckoned as the best and most judicious one when it fully meets the requirements of a given concrete situation, when" it is wh'ollyvvsuite'cl'to the conditions in which it is applied when it makes it possible to muster to the gTeatOSt extent the revolutionary and progressive_forces, and bring them to the battle-front, when it makes possible l&uunuyl exploitation of the enemy's weaknesses, and for all these reasons is likely to bring the greatest successes possible, given the relation of forces prevailing at the moment'. The African National Congress; it would appear, is'applying such a T method.

. The Sunday Mail (Zimbabwe) 11.10.81 'STAR'APOLOGISES .

The office of the African N.ational Congress of South Africa in Lusaka vhas protested about the headline in an aTtiCle in the The Star of June '23, 'ANC now ready to spill innocent blood.' Becaus e of legal restrictions on bannea organis ations and persons we are unable to quote the terms of the telex message in which the ANC drew the matter to our vattention and set out certain of its policies.

Having studied the article, however, we accept that the headline was not justified by the content and was thus not a fair reflection of ANC policies as there set out. The article said Treliahle sources close to the ANC saw armed action as only one facet of-political struggle. It said: 'Among a powerful section of the ANC there is a distinct moral distaste for terrorism defined as the indiscriminate use of Violehce against civilians for political purposes.— But what is clear is that the ANC now reflects a belief that there will inevitably be ihnoEOnt Casualties in a guerrilla war.' This was followed by further elaboration of the ANC'S pos lition on guerrilla warfare and civilian casualties. Thus our headline did not accurately reflect the main thrust of the article and we apologise for the lapse.

. . (Star 20.7.82) v

MASSIVE EXPLOSION AS PROTESTS SPREAD '-

THE wideSpread opposition to Republic Day celebrations reached a peak on Wednesday with nationwide demonstrations and a bomb explosion in central Durban.

The bomb exploded early on Wednesday at the Defence Force recruiting office in the centre of the town, eausing_extensive damage. The masfsive blast was heard throughout the-City and suburbs.

The explosion is believed to have been the work of the outlawed African National Congress (ANC).

ThO ANC has Claimed responsibility for a series of attacks durlng the past week.

The ANC said it had mounted a wave of aperations showing "high preu cision and co-ordination" aimed at disrupting the 20th anniversary of the South African Republic.

Other incidents reported on Wednesday included:

t At Hits university Brigadier Theuns 'Rooi Rus' Swanepoel, head of the Crine Prevention Unit on the Hitwatersrand and in charge of the riot squad led several platoons of men into the campus to arrest demonstrating studentso

t At the University of the western Cape close to 1 000 students raised $\ensuremath{\mathtt{W}}$ their fists in salute and shouted "Amandla N awethu" as they watched South African flag.

cm

As the flag disintegrated another flag bearing the hreen mold and black Colours of the banned African National Congress was raised. $^{\rm m}$ -

_The $228 was hoisted against displayed on the stewe spellin: out the demands Charter.

a back round of banners and esters

in the Freedom

A number of denonstrators were arrested outside the Good Hope Centre in Cape Town, where the Uorld heat Congress is taking place. At least 50 policemen were on the scene and the demonstrators, carrying placards, were forcibly removed fron the area and bundled into at least eight police vans.

It is understood the protest was against the Republic festival celebrations as well as the fact that the World Feat Congress is taking place in Cape Town.

4 Pupils at several black schools in the Cape Peninsula boycotted classeso By Liddey at least six Athlone schools were eumty after pupils had either not reported for lessons or had left soon after arriving.

Some schools in Paw Elizabeth closed early because of poor attendance following a call by the Congress of South African Students for the three-day protest boycottn

The Cape's regional director for the Department of Education, Lro Philip Engelbrecht, said there was a decrease in pupils' attendance but schools were still functioning.

4.13;:
"Attendance figures vary from school to school but we exheot thlngs will be back to normal when classes are resumed on Tuesday".
In an interview today, a Cos as spokesman said the sta yaway was just a three-da by protest age inst the Republic celebrations and everyone would return to School nex t weeka
A Iteeting in the Johannesburg City Hall we 3 Interrupted by police who said that a call had been received saying there was an explosive device in the hell.
The announcement from Hits students representative council president, Samwy Adelman, 'was greeted by jeers and no one got up to leave.
The meeting was addressed hy hr. Joseph Yavi and Revel Nkondo. Kore police reinformcement were drafted into the area and part of the -wPresidentuStreetwwas-bloeke&wtewtrafficey
"E16%'551166Mwiiu'ddgs mowed hedestrianstrom the afeihand at least one arrest was madeo 1' I '1 I K boycott started at the University of DurbansWestv1lle and the "M" a Iculcal College of Durban (Wentworth) spread to the UhiverSity o? Forthaneo Students at! Wentworth.herched-aroundnthe campusj singlng freedom .songs. -MHV;..N .1.1 FT.:HM ." UIQN;;1qu; A member of the Ledical Students' Representative Council seidwthhlr offices had been raided by police, who renoved pamphlets and a printing machine. All was quiet at the UDw campus following the cancellation of lectures by the rector on Nondeyo In Springs, Security Police confiscated thousands of pauphlets urging black factory workers to day home on Republic De yo A police spokesman said two black youths had been detained after being found in possession of the panphlets, urging workers to strike. Yore patphlets were seized in Durban when Security police searched the offiCes of the ecumenical agency - Diakoniao Meanwhile, Andrew Boraine, Muses President, was detained under Section 22 of the General Law Anendmen't Bill. sonmm, Friday, 1.:ay 29 '81)

.f ,

-19..

PRESTIGE OF ANC HAUUTS REGIEE

Hundreds_of terrorists have been infiltrating into the Republic since 1976, and LOTC are still training or waiting in the neighbouring countries for opportunities to slip across the border. They are well trained an& their tasks have been well clefine'do host of the terrou - rists - they call thehselves-freeioy fighters h are South African blacks who fled the country to undergo training before returning to South Africa. Once they are back in the Republic, they operate fret secret bases, sone in reyote hiding places, others on the out_ skirts of our cities and eVen in the townshipso Large quantities of arms, aimunition and explosives have been snuggled into the iRepublic and are stockpiled at these bases aid other secret caches in the country. Kore 3n& were black women are being recruited andv trained to back up urban terroristso They are used to ferry weapons, anmunition and propaganda uaterial u often concealed under their dresses to give an appearance of pregnancy m across borders into South Africa. They are also responsible for setting up safe bases and attending to domestic needs of terrorists: They have to try to ferret out police informers and anyone else opposed to the AHCn Honen are also used to snuggle large suns of money into the country, and they are expectei to help the ten supplement the finances they receive from overseaso Like the hen, woven are also trained in blowing up targets such as railway lines, police stations, post offices, power stations, bridges, etca The AHC worked for the establishment of international boycotts, arLs erbargoes and the total isolation of South Africa. The strategic

The AHC worked for the establishhent of international boycotts, arts erbargoes and the total isolation of South Africa. The strategic aim of the AhC as set out in its publication Current Tasks in our Struggle is the forcible eapure of power from the white uihority regime by the COLbinCd revolutionary forces of the black majority under7the-hanner ofithe African National Congresso Another eaptured.AHC document, which is being eistributel in the country proclaims: "We are at wara The revolution has started. The time to fight at all levels, using all methods, has COLE".

(NATAL :iERCURY , 19 o 2 a 81)

COUNTERING SUBSERVISIONTV .wn-wa

The systcLat'c programme of, eaboteae in South Africa is getting worse. Natal, at present, is hearing the brunt, with damage to fuel depots, railway lines, official buildings? the'ldtost inhident .being at Prulpietersburg in Northern Natal. But recent incidents have occured elsewhere in the countryo

-20...

It requires no genius to conclude that the African Nationel congress is at Work as never before. Pilitary and security chiefs have warned of a stepped-up qaupaigne The belief has been expressed in military quarters that, after escalating for five years or so, the campaign will subsigo. No wonder. The AUC has managed to gain a firm foothold in the thinking of the black masses. The 1976 Soweto unrest, produced thousands of young recruits who are returning to this country to commit violent acts. The independence of Zimbabwe, following that of the former Portuguese territories, has been a Lajor-spur to black nationalists' resolve. It is not uncommon fof funerals and other events to be narked by AHC oolours, AHC songs and AHC propaganda. This is done openly, in the presence of the scourity. The Buthelezi commission's attitude surveys showen powerful support for an organisation which, legally does not exist. What is to be done?

- Although subversion, of its own, is unlikely to shatter the powerful South African state, it is a critically dangerous elehent in a picture of growing instability - marked by the financial and military cost of SWA/Namibia, labour unrest and an economic showdown.

One way how not to handle the problem of AHC activity is to pretend that the pass of-hlack South Africans ho not exist politicallyo That causes blacks to despair and to turn to violent answers. The exclusion of blacks from the President's Council, and the failhre of the council to recommend a national constitutional future involving them, plays into the hands of those who seek extreme solutions; Africans are fobbed off with spuriousiindgpendenge.as Pfetoria's statelets; or "national statehood" which makes a mockery of the idea of statehood, The rest, the harassed non-homeland Africans, are offered some crumbs at local level, but their political aspirations as South Africans are ignored.

That is not the way to deal with ANC sdbversion. Only a programme involving the African masses meaningfully in the central political process'wiii head off theislide to:violence in South Africae Ultimately; the constitutional future must he agreed not only with coloured'end Indian South Africans, but with the recognized leaders of the Africans. That includes the AEC, which must be bargained with, or foughto The for or is preferable. (CAPE TB 135., 496., '82)

DJKHONTO WE SIZHE m THE SPEAK OF THE HATIOK

There was a :arkad.&rop in the number of sabotage acts in South Africa in 1982, but the ANC Laneged to continue its strategy of 'arxed prorepende' a zost notably at the Koeherg nuclear power station. From a peak of 55 in 1981, the number of attacks $r01ped to 23 in 1982u However, it was also the tear in which two of the lost significant attacks too? place - the ho hing of the Presieent's Council bhilding in Cape Town and the attack on Koeberf; a These were the rest'spectacular since the raids on Sasol installations at Secunda and Sesolburg in June, 1980..'

The nrued propaganCa tactic has involved attacks on econoxic targets lens and pipelines, and targets that $_{\rm CL}$ such as rail depots, rower eta symbolise White authority such as the President's Council building and various ea inhtration boerJ officesa

In the wehe of the South"Africen Defence Force Attack in Ieseru, fears were extreSSed that the AHC would switch its attention to soft targets such as Shetpiny centres, Professor John Barret of the Institute of International Affairs said the AHCte Strateyv was receiving a lot of approval internationallyg Tho oryanieation would tend to lose support if tactics were chnnged, 'It :2y take a long time for the; to achieve their objectives by sticking to hard targets, but fron their point of view this has been the ? et pro&uctive course of action ", he said.o Professor Barrett aided that the drop in the number of attacks could be attributed to tore effective poliee actienc However? the ANC seemed to be going for fewer targets with higher priorityo

e Apart from the twe Cape attacks, acts of sabotage have been concentrew tel in the Transvaal and Natale There were at least three gun battles between police and insurports in the areas which adjoin Swaziland. The 1982 attacks includeu

- 1 January 6: Vest Rand AO:ini.Jur8tion Boa d oftioes in Orlsnio Ee,s'bl"sted
- 1 larch 20: Co missioner's Court in Cape Town's Langm township bombedo # April 25: Explosion on a water pipeline over the U laas River in Hatnlc
- 1 ?av 21: Offices of the Port Natal Ai; inistration Bonri in Pinetown blastedv
- 1 fay 241 Water reservoir gain at ChOStorvillo in Durban clown upe
- 1 Pay 286 Several explosions dare r.:e petrol stornzxge tanks at Heotorspruit in the Eastern Transvaalo
- 1 June 21 Large attack at Paulpietersburg in Natalo Four bombs expler at a nearby Line, one at a fuel depot and one at a station" 4 hmOB' ?m dedmkihrmdmmcwmlarhUWM/hhcatmmeln Soweto blown upa
- 1 June 41 A bolb in a lift of the Presi(%ent 's Council Building in Cape Town kills a young engineering student, Lichael Younghusbanrlo 1 June 6: Blast damages a grain silo at Vrvhoid, Natal near Uatervalg Onder in Eastern Transvaal, injuring the Qriver and his assistantu 1 June ?8' A series of boabs o;plo&e at Scheoversnek in the Northern IT? nsvaal, f " Gurnmlnw an oil pipelinea
- 1 July 5: Water pipeline non Dunnotar on the Test Ranf olastodu 1 July 28: A borb explodes in a t(leohong b00'th out side Port u
- Elizabeth's new law courtsu
- 1 November 81 Five explosions at a petrol defotst quze on the Natal north coastq
- 1 December 18:v Four explosions rock the Kosher; nuclear power station, forcing the cormissioning of certain sections to be delayed.o (THE STAR 31 1:- '82)

EXPLOSION IN A IAGISTRATE'S COURT

An explosion rockeC. the Job -nnesburg M gistrate' 8 Court building today m only 200: fror the Uitwatersrani police HQ John Vorster Squareo BOLb Sound experts sifted through the debris and tho imredm wt was sealed off by scores of policemen; The explosion hnppenco at 1 30a m, on tho Bezudenhout Street side of the court buildingg Broken glass was lying in the street. It is not 111101111 what type of eyplosive was usedg

IntenSive 1'.1v:stigations hre unCnr wsr, rcccrlin: to 1 701109 spokesamna AT Sag:c tear? the court buidinc vns still close?.to the rublic, an& all telehhono lines to the builiiny had been cut. Police in Chaouhngo unifor S, uhiforrrd poliuezen 3n? traffic inmgectors gvnned roahbloohs and no members 0? the wublic were allovei near the blngt ureuu Press. yen were Pent aurw "556 no photographs of tho buiEing were allowei.u (THE STAR 31,12: y8:3)

An ESCO' shotes:an toJav Jig isneF clai s hr the :ilitary wing of the MC th?w1lt was responsible for the recent fire at Koeberg nuclear power 91""101 The old 8 were broadcast in a "lrclio nreeIo progra re over the woverful Radio Yth1lv1 trans itters lart nighto The Syokesw an $91G here was ohin; cf NaboLtrL at the rower station and uidel that the fire, which causof in Dre .epL imatc& at thousands or rnnds, was causal hr Fm 3100' rioal fbult. It was etrwxruw" hed by syecial Esco; Firewh hull4 ten SD The AHC almiLOG responsibility for several Q? sabotage attache in tho Cnyc area in the past yeara (STE 1.1.7382)

BOEBIUG 0? Th? _7 OFFICE

A 1(11h bor:b wredleed the ofzfices of the :ilitant black nationalist African National Congress in Lon&on vesterday only hours before the atart of a maSS'rally through the erwital org oanised by the Antl-Apartheid Toveaent. w-a L19t nlr t'rrnrist qrur' officerq hunted for a Lan seen - leav n of the ortloainn, inturnntionml lea .rs of the ANC Claizod that the attno; was launchek by the .nouth Liric.n Department The blast, xrhicin.1:113'11rzrl a research 01"fi 0181 residing at the building, care after a BUUPH conferencs at Henbley on Southern hfrien attended Sir Shridmth Rn;hhm17 thn Monwealth oecra..rr General at which the unoFficinl tour of ?nglimh cricketerv 0559 under nttacf, The er?lowive fevico wt: 31169(1 at the TGFI "oor o? the A30 otfices,and went of? st 9 UOP.LmE,.&Qvastatinr the bash of the building and creaking

```
. 2.;
windowso hull81L80 100 "08T18 mJn.iw
Tr. VerneL 3 DJLha, Lhe resoo.rc h assisLanL, wag in his Lhir? floor?
an8 wns forced Lo escape over Lhe neighbouring LoolLopso AnLimLerrorisL squaG Ov Hcersy-led'bv Co:'88901 Lichael RicharCS, chd Lhroqu'Lho iebris suyported by an8 forensic science eyLerLc s a helioopLer which survevod Lhe surrounding Pres.7 aha sniffer logs LWhiCh cheoVed for W: Lher Jevicesa DeL. InsyeoLor Cole of Lhe anLiw LerrorisL s uaP snid' 1"There is no way of vosovlh118 Lhis device froy wth is lefL OT 1L1 Thw rerr of Lhc huildini is ?racLically 8eerove8.a IL was a 119:7chr ho.h an8 w- thin? 1L V33 wlmde Lhnn Lhrowna We are looFinn into 91v connchion with Lho anLiu anarwhei8 rnllv (111.3337 1:;
"A 11
, .30 '81)
The b0 0 hlU.L which wrecked Lhe Lon8on ofgices of Lhe LNG on Sunday wag a Mr; :aLic Ie; oreraLion of Lhe yrowing-vihence of Lhn oollzlicL in Sou Lh Azfrica IL 9 so unmorliqp' Lhe gosiLion of Lhe ANS, LLC 01(0?: LLPbllshn8 naLio in SL aoverehL, ms Lhe lcn8er of CTile op0051L10n Lo whiLeu; in01iLv r1110.0 Whoever gmv ha 3 been responsible for the ho bin? u ineviLahle SouLh African agean or SVLDRLhiSGTS cre seen h? 4Lhe AUG rn Frige mquecLs a there is no douhL LhaL Lhe organism" aLioh is rerarrh 8 LoOnw hv SouLhi rica's inL lligence and securiL" sarvime: as Lhe ?OSL f:or idmole of Lhe blac? led opcosiLion movezeana In Shite of bein: oullawed for Lhe pasL T9 years in South i;:rica, the AUC
th also enjoyed Pn upgurwo in Juhlic 8c :onern sLions of support wiLhin Lhe counLryd
The A3 colours, annerg and Slogans have been married blaLanLly in FronL of Lhe Fieculr'iLir police aL reoenL funerals ofLradioal black and TThi LC nwx-pathiserso Such imnonernLions of "LorL for Lhe :ovemenL dLeDEV ihoronse in Lhnuy'vla4vlol Qt QOLOHSBPRtiOHS rL1' inc 11(in' bOVJlJ" ow rublic buildinrn
There 19 evidence of inurased hniiemv in Lhe whiLn soy uniLv over Lhe ease viLh Vhich A_TC 11"Vr"751 now 5001 Pblc Lo leave7 oaernLo in
.r
J. 4.;
0? Cxacirl COL ec
```

and enLcr LLe counLrjro Lho SecuriLv police chief, noted last year that 'the terrorist wan laught aoainst South Africa had increased. dramaticall over the as t few veerso fThe terrorists are succeedin, in inflicting damage on selected targets' he Said. The novement's Secretary General, Era Nzo, warned in London last week that foreign sportsmen playing in South Africa were entering a war zone...a

(FHIMICIAL TILES UK 16.30'82).

TRAI-ISVALER COIEFEIT ON TEE BOIEBING

The British government, with full knowledge of the LNC'S terrorist activities against the Republic, nevertheless allows thern to operate from the British capitalo The British government must therefore expect that it is setting up a target for undesirable violenne.

(The Star quoting Die Transvaler

1993. '82)o

APufEHEID'S DESTABILISATION POLICY

Last mohth's raid' by apartheid commandos into the Kingdom of Lesotho, in which 42 people were massacrei, signalled a new stage in-South Africa's aggression against her neighbouring stateso Although there are continuing terror raids against refugees, civilic ns and economic t? rgets in both Angola and Tozambique, this Was the first largenscale, direct attack by the South African army against one of its small, almost defenceless, neighbourso The raid was a drahatic demonstration of the mounting aggression of the apartheid regime but also revealed the use of relatively new elite zaurder units for this kind of operationo Ominously, the murder raid served as a warning of similar future ine cursions. In fact, within a week of the raid, apartheid regime spokese men were threatening strikes against all Southern African-states which give sanctuary to ANC members. This pattern of increasing aggression against its neighbours is an inevitable outcome of the militarisation of apartheido South Africa, over the last two decades, and due to Western support, has become a massive military bower. military spending has grown from R44Pm in 1960 to a staggering estimated R3,2-billion in the current financial yearo

The number of troops under arms at any one time .grew from 11 ,500 in 1960 to an estimated 250,0QQMtodey. In fact, the total strength of the,i armed forces is_est1mated to number OYEPI?OOrOPOO' There 'is conscr1pt1on" for all white males who now do two years' nationala service, follower by a 35-year commitment to the SADF. All white males between the ages of 18 and 55 are now liable for call4hp. Increasingly, too; black men . and white women are being recruited into theapartheid military. Apartheid South Africa has become a military state, with generals and military intelligence chiefs acting as P.U. Bothafsaeloeest advisers. The growth of this military might has been accompanied by the creation in recent years of elite special force untis, similar to the British SAS, . America's Green Berets and white Rhodesia's Seloue Scouts. These special units serve as a key element in South Africa's overall arsenal of aggression. Before looking at some of these forces in more detail it is worth emphasising the real and continuing threat that South Africa's conventional forces pose to the whole of Southern African South African military forces now pernhanently occupy part of Southern 5 Angola, they have 100, 000 troops illegally occupying Namlbia 1h an t'mt'k attempt to defeat the liberation struggle of the Namibian people led by 'SWAPO. South Africa would dearly love Cuban troops to pull out of Angola, 'as it would then be in a better position to carry out an Israeli-style raid on Angola, right up: to the capital Luanda, which 6f course it failed to do during its invasion of Angola in 1975/60 And recently the apartheid regime has been mass 1ng thousands of troops vgon. the hozambiqne border, raising the likelihood of a massive conventional attack on that country. In addition the apartheid regime has, for several years, been training and directing the activities of various countere-: revolutionary groupe throughbut Southern Africa: Unite in Angola7111NR-t' In Moe ambique, former Huzorewa dissidents and other groups in Zimbabwe, various gangs in Zambia and the LLA in Lesotho. But perhaps the most slnister of all are the apartheid army's own elite forces. In Namibia these units have operated for some time, terrorising and torturing clvlllans, carrying out terror and sabotage acts in Angola. There are several SADF 'special units ' 1n1 Namibia, the Reconnaissance

Commandos, Koevoet, and various units composed of mercenaries, like th-e 44 brigade.

The-epartheid army now has a General Officer Commanding special forces. He is responsible directly to the overall chief of the SADF and does not fall under the normal military chain of command;

The attack into Lesotho is believed to have been carried out by the same elite unit which carried out the murder raid into Mozambique in January, 1981 in which 13 ENG members were murdered at Eatola and three more 'captured." namely 1 Reconnaissance Commando, based in Durbano This special force, knows as the Reoces, consists entirely of hand4picked members of the permanent forces, and selected mercenaries, mainly from elite Neto unite, many of whom are British and US citizens. This commando unit includes specialists in the local languages of the area they are attacking. In both the Matola and Maseru raids, the attackers blackened their faces and hands. Hembers of the unit are known to flaunt their extreme racist and rightnwing view - two of the attackers at Eatola had swastikas painted on ther helmets.

The Apartheid military is now establishing bases for Reconnaissance Commando units near borders of its neighbouring states, precisely to step up these raids in the futureo (MORNING STAR (UK).. 591.983)

DESTABILIZATIOH STRATEGY AGAINST ZIMBABWE

South Africa was accused of constantly violating the border with Zimbabwe. The Security Ninister, Ere Emmerson Kunangagwa, claimed South Africa had established a "Eatebele Brigade" commanded by a Colonel Breytenbach who sent bandits inte Zimbabwe. The Minister named a number of camps which he said had been set up by South AfRica, including one at Phalaborwa, where he said thousands of men were being trained. Ere Munagengwa said occasional violations of Zimbabwe air space also took placeo But he said that Seuth African aircraft, since he warned of this last October, were no longer flying at low levelsu "They now fly very high, but we are taking measures to protect our air spaceo" Hrv Nunagagwa said the camps in South Africa where dissidents were being trained were Spacer Camp, Kadibo Camp, Ntabi Camp and Phalaborwa. Some of the bandits had been captured and others killed on their return to Zimbabwe, he saidu He claimed that some had been instructed to operate as members of Zipra, the former guerilla army of Mr; Joshua Nkomou

(THE STAR 3.1.'83)

UESTABILIZATION AGAINST MOZAMBIQUE

'Every time we celebrate a national holiday, they park their Jeeps and ; armoured oars up there', saida young lieutenant in the Mozambique army, gesthring to the hills on two sides of the border town of Ressano Garcia, with 5,000 people. "They do it to harass us, as a provocation". The .officer's complaint underscored the delicacy of relations between blackruled Mozambique and white minority governed South Africa, -especially at this frontier post where the Maputo government accused South Africa late in November of massing troops for an invasion; The builduup foliowed an attack by guerillas of the ANC on South African military installations at Komatipoort on NoVember 22i The Government .1 , ' of President Heohei and the ANC say ANC insurgents do not use Eozambican territory asla jumping off point for attacks into South Africa. Butt . Iozambique does give ANC supporters refuge and officials in IIaputo, just 45 miles from the frontier, say they are ooncerned that Mozambique may become a target for_Pretoria's commandos. (THE TIMES UK 4.1n'83) ANC ATTACKED IE LESOTHO

A series of bomb blasts damaged the houses of two refugee members of the African National Congress in Kaseru shortly after midnight yesterdaye The bombs u police believe there were three m went off within seconds of each other at the home of IIrc Temba Banzi. It is understoo_d that ,Mrs. Banzi was seriously injured, and is being treated at the Queen Elizabeth II hospital in Easeruo It is believed Hr. Banzi escaped "injury, although the house was ey tensively I damaged; The 165% was blown off in the e: leo Dion and three oe rs parked outside were damaged. The bombs blew out the windows in the neighbouring house belonging to another refugee, Lr. Tembi H? ni who is a senior member of the ANC in :Lesotho; Nobody was :hurt. Police believe the bomb was meant for I both,men. It was th.e second East at Mr. Hani's home. Two years ago, a bomb slightly_damaged _his house and injured a man who allegedly. El placed the deviceo

(RAND DAILY HAIL, 3.89f82)

TheT esotho Foreign Linister, hr. liTooko I'101apo, has said south Africa I -offered to curb the Lesotho Liberation Army n in return for his country expelling ANC meno This is the first time that Lesotho has confirmed that a "deal" was proposed when Mr. Molapo met his South African counterpart in Cape Town on August the 19th.

. vau

If Hro iolepo is accurately reporting hr, Pik Botha, the South African Foreign Iinister, it would also be the first evidence that South Africa admits to allowing the LLA to operate from its soil. According to Mr,-Molapo, hra Botha sais '7There Iqould be no LLA if you removed all South African refugees from Lesotho". "my response was that Lesotho is a sovereign'state and in the eieroise of our sovereignty, we can grant people asylum, As sign? tories to the UN Convention on Refugees, we cannot accept being asked to refuse people who seek asylum," said Er. Molapoo He objected to the offer being called a "deal" or "trade off"; "He don" trace in human beings, What Hro Botha said was "If you want to do something about the LLA camps, you must do something about the ANC." He said South Africa perticularly wanted Lesotho to expel an ANC man, Er. Hani (Temba Hani is the ANC Chief in Lesotho)" When I pushed Mr. Botha to tell me of one inciGent of hostility perpetrated. by people ih Lesotho egainst South Africa, he spoke of ANC leaflets that were printed in Lesotho and_. exhorted South Afrioc.n people not to go to work on a certain day. It was the first time I had heard about these pamphletsg I came back to Maseru i and'investigeted the matter, and subsequently established that the i allegation was in fact correct. The pamphlets were printed in horija, and we told the ANC it was a violation of their asylum conditions." Mr. Holapo said one should distinguish between refugees and freedom fighters.' Lesotho would continue to grant asylum to refugees provided they did not use the country for a springboard for attacks against their home stateo

U.,. DOCUHENT ON APARTHEID CONTROL

(THE STAR 4.12.381)

Sabotage hla stock place in South Africa in January and February this year and the press was unawcoe of themo Repairs were done in secret to avoid publicitV, according to a UnitO6 States Government intelligence document marked 'top secret'. The document says the South African Igovernment is considering even stricter Press restrictions in the belief that Press reports benefit the banned African National Congressa The Reagan administration's official analyst comments that reduced Press coverage will "strengthen the militants.in the ANS who wc.nt the group to engage in I spectacular attacks against the whites". Thed daily intelligence summary is prepared by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), the Defence Intelligence Agency (DIA) and the National Security Agency (NSA) for security-cleared American officials dealing with defence, intelligence and foreign policy. It was leaked to the Press by the director of the Black American policy lobbying organisation Transafrioa, Krw Randall Robinsono

The sabotage incidents are mentioned in the section on South Africa of the April 15 daily summary of intelligence around the worldo The report says the South African government is apparently "attempting to conceal the extent of terrorist activity in the rural areas"o Under the heading 'comment5 the analyst addse "The attacks probably were carried out by members of the ANC operating out of Botswana"o Colonel Chris Coetzee, head of the Police Liaison Division, said last night he was unaware of the alleged blasts. "There is no way we could have kept an incident from the Press. He notify the Press of any attack but normally we do not advertise the extent of the damage", he said.

(RAND DAILY HAIL 2107082)

QUOTATIONS FROH ROBERT S, MCNAHARAZ FORMER UASA SECRETARY OF STATE FOR DEFENCE AND HEAD OF THE WOPLD BIEKA

Henry Kissinger, as Secretary of State, answered that question in part in a Speech he made in Zambia in 1976.' He said: "The world community's concern with South Africa is not merely_that ricial iiecrimination exists there. What is unique is the extent to which racial discrimination has been institutionalised, enshrined in law, and made all pervasive". W...o.o...unless they are fundamentally resigned, they will eventually lead to a catastrophic racial conflict that will have serious ramifications throughout the Western world, and most especially in the United States." "a...uo...And if a rising tide of violence engulfs both whites and blacks. in South Africa ${\tt m}$ and, particularly if the Soviet Uhion chooses to help wage a war of liberation directly, or by proxy, against the white regime \boldsymbol{n} then the United STates will be confronted with a very dangerous set of dilemmas in trying to decide how to react "o (From page 2, paragraphs 2, 3, and 4 of Robert S. EcNamara's address "The Road Ahead", delivered at the th iversity of the Nitwatersrand, Johannesburg, October 21, 1982). HvauoocooocIf South Africa fails to deal justly and effectively with its: own internal racial problem, that failure will only result in immense damage to our society, but it will impose heavy economic, military and political penalties on other societies in the Western world as well, and particularly on the United States"o (Page 3, paragraph 1 of the above statement).

"Although black Africans outnumber'whites 41 to t in Soutl Africa white university graduates outnumbered black Africans 75 to 1"u (Page paragraph 2 of the speech referred to above): "The weakness of the Government's programme is twofolda The pace at which it addresses the pressing social and economic heede'ef the blacks is far too slow, and it fails to confront the iseu of political particu ipation. Now are does it begin to advance toward; uhat forme; British Prime Minister, Ira Edward He th, has called the only untimate solution; "The granting of full political rights to the nonpwhite poyulatiOn of South AT rice _ a universal franchise at the national level"o AFRICA'S RESPONSE u COHHUNIQUE OF FRONTLINE HEGPS OF STATES The Heads of State and Government of the Fronitin States aha the President 8 of SIAPO and ANC (So th Africa) met 1? Tzauto, the People's Republic of Iozambique from the 6th to the 7th larch, 7982 to analyse the current situation in Southern Africaa The Frontline States Summit noted the ever increasing a gre ssiveness of imperialism perpetrated by the racist regime of South J rice, ite inw strument of aggression in the reginn. The invasions and military aggressions7 . 3 the utilir ation of arxod bandits and agents, the ac be of sabotage 111 economic blackneil, the me ssive and subversive propaganda e ${\tt m}$ 1-. u 1 113nm conducted by South Africa are proof that there is current y en undeclared war situation engendered and supported by South Africa. These manoeuvres are aixei at increasing our dependence on South Africa,, forstalling the harmonious application of our development plans and delaying at all costs the independence of Nenibia and preventing the liberation of the South African peopleo liberation of the South African peopleo

The occupation of areas in the southern part of the People': Republic of Angola by the Pretoria racist forces and. the? attempt to promote the UNITA puppets aims at creating an international precedent which could be made applicable to any of the countries in the regiono The African peoples have the ?_ight to ex pect a vigorous reaction from the international community which should condemn anct demand the immediate cessation of this intolerable violation of sovereignty and territorial integrity of a member state of the OAU and the United Nations.

The Frontline States Summit noted with satisfaction that as a direct response to the ever increasing acts of repression and crimes committed by the Pretoria regime, tie peoples of Namibia under the leadership of SHAPO are intensifying the liberation struggle in the country and that in South Africa under the leadership of the ANC the people through strikes and armed actions are vigorously rising against Apartheid, The Heads of State and Government of the Frontline States decidedzm h to reiforce their coordinated action of defence in order to stop the racist regime of Pretoria from continuing its acts of military aggren ssion and economic sabotage against the free and independent states of the region and force it to withdraw its occupying forces from the People's Republic of Angola. to reinforce their bilateral and regional cooperation in the eipIOmatic, economic, military and inforvation fieldsu to inteneiry their material and diplomatic support for the liberation movements of SHAPO of Namibia and ARC of South Africa, so that they can intensify the armee; struggle for the attainment of national independence of their peopleso To demand the integral implementation of the UH-Security Council Resolution 435 (78) in order to accelerate the withdrawal of the South African occupying forces and the holding of free and fair elections leading to real independence in Namibia; to salute the Government of Seychelles for the defeat inflieted on the mercenary bane sent by the South African regime to carry out A , coup d'etet in that countryo to condewn the support grantei by western powers to the Apartheid regime through the sale of arms, the financial and economic leverage, the transfer of technology, including nuclear technology. to undertake actions at the level of international organisation and lother fora with a view to mobilizing support for the struggle of the Namibian and South African peoples as well as denouncing, .eondemning and isolating the South African aparthei& regime in all spheresa The Heads of State and Government of the Frontline States condemn the new phenomenon enmloyed by South Africa which consists in.preparing, finae ncing anS training armed bandits to destabiliee the independent

Southern African countries.
The Heads of State of the Frontline States warmly congratulated the Prime Minister Robert Mugabe for having successfully foiled the attempts at destabilising peace and security in Zimbabwe.

A

(LUTA CONTINUA! (Maputo, March 7, 1982.)

.33...

Eg! We don't want your PC plan, angry EL tells Hendrickse The coloured Labour Party's plans to back Government reform proposals suffered a crushing, humiliating _ and briefly violent - rejection here this week.

Labour Party leaders Allan Hendrick o and Jae Rabie - in East London to canvas support for their party's pro-Government decision three weeks ago _ were heckled, booed and joered as "selloutst throughout Wednesday's public meeting.

At one stage fighting broke out between hecklers and the handful of Hendrickse supporters.

Finally, a vote of confidence in the Labour Party decision, was called by local Labour Party organiser Peter Mopp. Just over 100 of a total audience of more than 1 500 gave their support.

The angry rejection, at the first public meeting since the Labour Party decision, in a town known as one of the party's Cape strong-holds, casts serious doubts on the Labour Party's ability to win even sizable minority support among coloured voters.

Even he size of the audience - only 1 500 of a total voter population of 15 000 $_$ indicates strong voter disapproval of Hendrickse's leaderu ship. Past Labour Party meetings here have seen the elite flocking to cheer their leaders.

m

The meetiag at Parkside Hall was a complete fiasco as peaker after Speaker was drowned out by heckling and deafening freedom songs. From the start, Mr Hendrickse and Mr Rabie were booed and aeouse& of selling out.

HECKI E)

t one stage Mr Hendricksc himself was heckled into silence while freedom songs were sung.

Both he and Mr Rabie were on most occasions inaudible as the crowd shouted them down.

When a vote of confidence was called, the vast majority marched out of the 113.11 .

.34.; -

By the end of the meeting a dejected ${\tt Mr}$ Hendrickse had only a handful of woll-wiahers listeningo

Later a gang of hooligans stoned the bus taking traae unionists from the hall.

Prominent at the meeting wbrc a carnload of security Cops.

Earlier, Mr Rabie launched a sbahhing attACk'on Dr Allan Boosak saying the NG Kerk to whidh.Dr Boesdk bclungod'was the only church in SA born out of aparyheid. For this_he was booed and heckled.

h In Cape TOWn Dr Boosak has refused.td take part in a debate on the Government proposals because of the presence of Labbur Party naiiorhl chairman David Qurrya

(GOLDEN CITY PRESS 30.1.83)

MILITANTS: ef the African National Congress of Sotth Africa last Week' marked the 21st anniversary of the launching of IUmkhento We Sizwelthe people's army of South Africa.

TUmkhento We Sizwe' - spear of the Nationa -, military wing of the ANC was born on December 16, 1961 - unleashing welleceordinated sabotage attacks against racist government installations.

Said the manifesto launching Umkhonto: H... the time comes in the iife of any nation when there remain only two choices: eubwit or fight. That time has come to South Africa. We shall not submit, and we have no choice but to hit back by all means within our power in defence of our people, our future and our freedom..."

And to mark the occasion of the start of the armed liberation war in '. apartheid South Africa and in responce to the massacre carried out by invading beer troops in Maseru, Lesotho, a fortnight ago, Hmkhonto We Sizwe bombed with meticulous precision, the multi-ndllion dollar, French aided, top-security Koeberg Nuclear reactor around Cape Town. Over the last two years, the South African cowbatants have inflicted telling blows'against the apartheid regime u jolting it to its very t foundation.

On Uhne 1, 1980 the apartheid regime awoke to find that its oil-frome coal plant u built as a safeguard against tightening international isolation was blown into flames.

The regimeis energy installation have remained a prime target and in April last year;'a1,250,000 (about TSHs. 20;250,000) damage was incurred as limpet mines exploded ongtwo transformers at a Durban power 5 station.'

The following month in May last year, five targetg were hit within a few hours of each other. These included police stations, telephone wires and railway tracks.

Then ; came one of the most satisfactory operations: an attack on the South African defence force headquarters in Pretoria. Four 122mm rockets fired from a launcher rocked the defence forces headquarters. According to the apartheid Defence Minister General Magnus Malan, there has been 200 per cent increase in the level of armed insurreeu tion in 1981 alone compared to the previous year.

Last week's attack on the racists' Koeberg nuclear power station has convincingly shattered the myth played up by Pretoria that Umkhonto I did not operate inside South Africa but from neighbouring African countries.

And the bombing, coming almost immediately after the air-oorne invasion of Maseru and subsequent massacre of Sou.th African refugees and Lesotho national convincingly pushes home the reality that Dmkhonto. wages war within and inside apartheid South Africa.

The faet that Umkhonto we Sizwe is a people's army inside South Africa is also supported 0y the not easily admitted factor tllat the Boers are, always almost unable to apprehend any significant hummer of ANC combatants even long after a given operation takes places. umkhonto swims with the broad masses, much as fish swims with tlle water.

Being one of the oldest liberation organisations in Africa, turning 71 on the Eve of the New Year, the African National Congress of South Africa had, before the start of the last two decades consistently followed a policy of nonrviolence.

Hitherto, he liberation organisations had conducted themselves peacefully at all times, regardless of Boer attacks and persecution and attempts to provoke them into violence. The massacres unleashed at Langa and Sharpville amply testify to this racist provocation. Yet what could be called as the Gandhi philosophized peaceful resiSw tance adopted by the South African liberation organisations had been interpreted by the Boer regime as a weakness; and. the non-violent conduct of the people had been taken as a greenlight for the natiOn nalistlgOVOfnment's violence and terror, without recourse to fear of reprisals.

This era, however, endea with the birth of Umkhonto We Sizwe 21 years ago.

In the words 0: the manifesto forming that people's army of the ANC:
"Weaare strihing out along a new road for the liberation of this country. The government policy of force, repressien and violence will no longer be met with nonnviolent resistance. The choice is not ours; it has been made by the nationalist government which has rejected every peaceable demang of the peeple for rights and freedom"e

It adds: "Umkhonto We Sizwe will be at the frontline of the peoplets defence. It will be the striking force of the people for liberty, for rights and fer their final liberation.' Let them (racists) and their supporters who put them into power and those whose passive toleration of reaction keeps them into power take note as to where the nationalist government is leading the centry.."

Indeed, this warning in the manifesto of Umkhonto e the people's army which exploded the French-supplied nuclear reactor in the very heart 'of the land of apartheid; is valid and very relevant to all foreign investors of the price they will have to pay for their continued investments in the apartheid state.

Inspite of their staged indignation at the pelicies of-apaftheid, western countries whose multinationals propel the apartheid machinery J remein, at best, accomplices in the ohimes against humanity that the Afrikaaner regime continues to perpetuate.

The false sense of watef-tight security over foreign intestments in South Africa, for long windowudnessed bytPretoria4toeencohragehmnreiian vestments has now been exposed to the full light of the day. The ball is now right in the court.of investors in apartheid South Africa. The choice is theirs. Pretoria is not invincible.v It'ie _ as vulnerable asta house of Cards. '

- . SHIHATA
- . TANZANIA NEWS AGENCY IVOL.1, No. 47,27.12.82

-38..

ANCq ; BQ3$$RS AND STILL GROWING

One of the oldest political parties on the African continent, the African National Congress, this week celebrated its 70th anniversary.

The ANC, spearhead of the fight against apartheid, was created in 1912 in Bloemfontein, in the Orange Free State, by a black lawyer, Pixlox Ka I Seme. The event wont unnoticed at the time, even though J.T. Jabavul the editor of tho blacknroadorship newspaper Imvo ("Ideas" in Xhosa), expressed the fear that white liberals might thereby turn reactionary.

The movement, essentially reformist at the outset, became gradually more radical to the point that its armed wing umkhonto We Sizwe (Spear of the Nation in Zulu) claimed responsibility for some 50 armed attacks last year.

During its 70 years, the ANC has undergone diverse fortunes but gpppars today to have overcome its-maih problems. Its popularity is now very high, especially among young people.

An opinion poll carried out last year by the Johannesburg Star indicated that 40 percent of urban blacks would vote for AEC candidates in free general elections.

It has taken some 30 years for the ANC to assert itself with the succet9 sion of militant nationalists in place of intellectuals and traditionalA chiefs.

At the same time, the ANC moved closer to the South African Communist Party aha the Soviet Uhion. In the late 1920s, ANC President James Gumedo was the first black South African leader to travel to Moscow. The organisation underwent its most serious crisis in 1958, when seve- 1 ral hundred of its members, led by Robert Sobukwc, broke away to form the PannAfrigqn Congress (BAG),

. ,

Tho PAC, whose loader died in 1978, stressed the ethnic character of the struggle of black South Africans.

In 1960, 69 residents of the black township of Sharpville, near . Vereeniging were shot dead. by police during a. demonstration and. the government declared a state of emCrgoncy.

The ANC and the PAC were banned and thousands of their members arrested in the aftermath of ihewSherpville Shootings. The ANC thereupon went into into olandestinity, forming Umkhonto Ne Sizwe in 1961.

The arrests in 1963 of its president, Nelson Mandela, and his deputy, Walter SiSUlu, were a severe blow to the organisation, which had nevertheless taken the precaution of establishing an office in Londono The head of the London office, Oliver Tambo, immediately assemed leaderu ship a

Mr Mandela, like Mr Sisulu, was segtenced to life imprisonment in 1964 and interned on Robben Island, but his prestige, as with that of his 1 wife, Winnie Mandela, has remained great among blacks.

A banning order on Mrs Mandela has recently been exten&ed for five years. Multi-macial in its outlook, althoudi most of its memebers are black, the ANC has a Marxist analysis of the situation in South Africa, while not neglecting the particular ethnic nature of the power struggle. One b one the leaders of the "Black Consciousness Movement " hirh v I i a popular during the 1970s the is to Steve Bike, who died in custody in 1977, have been woing over to the ANC. 1')

The latest to make the move is Barney Pityana, one of the founders of the Black Consciousness Movement.

According to informed sources, the ANC has training camps in Angole and a political training school in Dar-CSeSalaam, Tanzania.

But contrary to claims by the authorities in Pretoria, the AND does not appear to have military bases in Mozambique, even if one of the leaders of its military wing, white former South African lawyer Joe Slove, spends most of his time there. - AF?

(sowmm 11.1.82)

THE STRUGGLE CONTINUES!
VICTORY IS CERTAIN!

POWER TO A PEOPLE'S GOVERNMENT!