

The

e inferior 10 men

'SIR â\200\224 Please let me state my opinion in our only paper. I read with interest the a rt:des

- womenâ\200\231s rights.

' Firstly, let me point out that women will never change. Women will remain women and their status as women will never change or be changed, no matter how highly educated they are:

They can be doctors, professors or rulers of the whele univese but

Whites.

'Secondly, African men seem to lose control of their women through this

. They let women go their own way. They are

Have you ever heard of a White woman heing arrested for such a case in Soweto? Never. ,
If women are equal to men then they must join the Mm Force. Let
