MEETING ON TRADE UNION ACTION AGAIBT APARTHEID AND IN SOLIDARITY WITH THE WORKER'S AND PEDPLE OF SOUTH AFRICA

The Organisation of African Trade Union Unity (OATUU), in cooperat1011 with the International labour Organisation and with the financial assistance of the United Nations Centre Against Apartheid, is planning to hold the above-mentioned meeting in one of the Frontline' States towards the end of this year.

The main objective of this meeting is to assess the present trends and developments of the South African situation in general and in the labour front in particular, as well as to exchange views ulth the labour leaders inside and outside South Africa on the best ways and means of furtherâ\200\230mobilising African and international trade union support for their activities and against the Apartheid regime.

serve as an important and unique forum of exchange of trade union views and experiences in the fight against apartheid, including future united.trade union actions to be undertaken both inside and outside South Africa in further isolating the Apartheid regime.

The meeting is eXpected.to

Consultat ions will be carried out with all those concerned, including the UN'Centre Against Apartheid and the International Labour Offiee, on the actual date and venue of the meeting as well as its organisational aspect in Geneva in June this year during the International Labour Conference .
