POLITICAL STAFF

HE KwaZulu-Natal parllament has finally appointed a commis. sioner to administer the membersâ\200\231 asset register aimed at ensuring there is no conflict between the members' political work and their business interests,

The Speaker, Bonga Mdlotshe, confirmed that advocate Dieter Michael Achtzehn had been appointed commissioner of the membersâ\200\231 assets register with immediate effect.

This means that for the first time In nine years provincial members of the legislature will be able to declare thelr intorests, Joining other provincial leglsla-

. tures which have already doing so for years.

The oMu.-Uw is to ensure that members act in good faith and in the best interest of good governance and do not act in a way inconsistent with their office.

The Standing Rules of the KwaZulu-Natal parliament require mombeors to maintain the highest standard of honesty, accountabllltx openness and integrity â\200\234This 18 to ensure that his or her conduct strengthens the public's trust and confidence in parliament,â\200\235 says the rules,

In terms of these rules, provincial MPs are expected to declare any personal or finan- - cial intereat, Ordinary members of the public are entitled to access the public section of the reglster - and the commissioner is also-required by law to publish the - register at least once a year.

The need for members to " declare their asssts and buaj.- ness interests was highlighted recently when it was found that national defence ministar Mosiuoa Lekota had not-declared his business interests. .

1t was revealed that Lekota, the chalrman of the ANC, had " contravened parllament's code of conduct when he falled to declare hia inferests In a petroleum distribution company 8,
