

Joo ely

Trustees:

Honorary Patrons: Joseph Chaikin, Jules Feiffer, Athol Fugard, Nadine Gordimer, John Kani, - Winston Ntshona, Joseph Papp, Sir Michael Redgrave,

4

The Market Theatre Foundation
An association incorporated not for gain
P.O. Box 8656, Johannesburg 2000
Phone: 832-1641/2/3/4/5

CONTACT: ANNE MARIE GRINDROD
TEL 5: 832.1641/2/3/4/5

DATE RELEASED: 1.5.1984 FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

An exhibition of works by Tom Robertson and Julian Venter opens at the Market Gallery at 6 p.m. on May 20 and runs uUnobel dune: 9.

Tom:Robertson, photographer and Audio-visual producer, and Julian Venter, final year painting student at Pretoria Technikon, are the two Pretoria artists who have combined to produce this amazing Multi-media exhibition, which incorporates photography, painting, music and audio-visual.

The basis of this exhibition is the development of Man the Animal, his spiritual evolvement and refinement, his progressions and regressions, and the awakening of his >i creative urge.

MORE...

1.S. Haggie (Chairman), Prof. G.R. Bozzoli, G. Lindop (Deputy Chairmen); W.L. Baqwa, Dr
. P.P.B. Breytenbach, V. Cooke, C.M. Fisher, M. Goldberg, D. Goldblatt, L.H. Herber, H.M. Hirsch, T.W. Kambule, R.P. Krause. M. Manim, |.N. Matthews, M.S. McLean, Dr. N.1.
Motlana, M. O'Dowd, C. Saloojee, B. Simon, 8. Trisk, R.J. Tucker, J.B. Wentzel, Janet Suzman.

robertson/venter two

Music for the Audio-visual was composed by Gabby Le Roux and the sound engineered by Chris West-Russell and Doc

Barendse.

This is the first time that Tom Robertson and Julian Venter have exhibited at the Market, although they have shown work at the Zinc Shop shows and Tom has exhibited at the Pentax Gallery in Rosebank.

This is an exhibition which promises to be exciting experience..