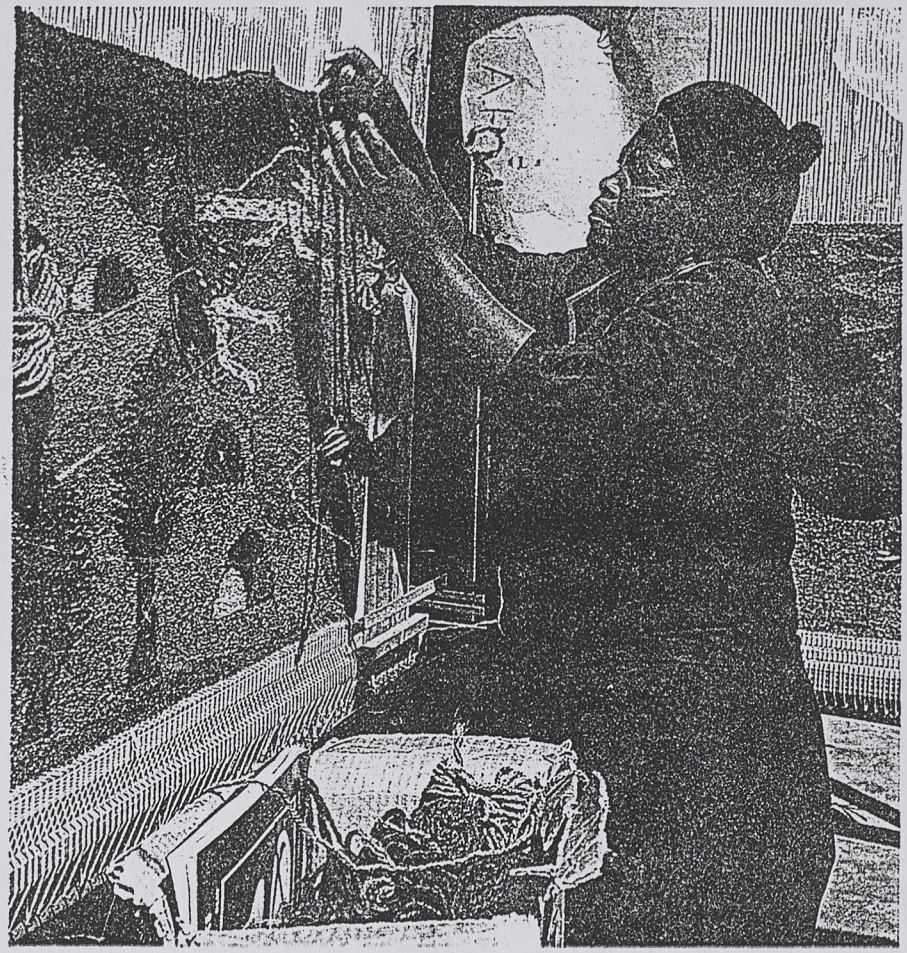
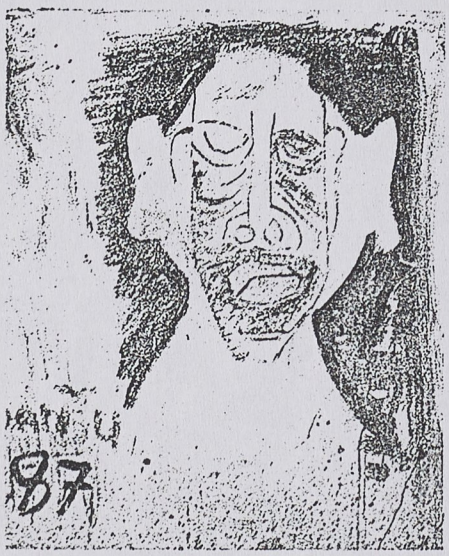
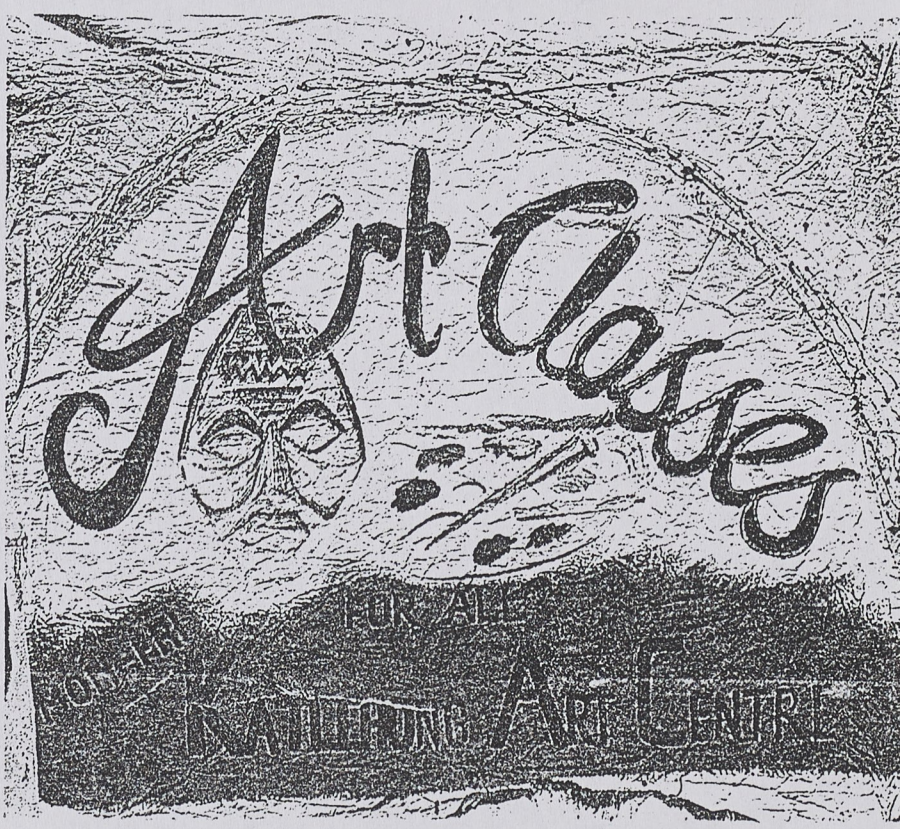
MNI-0001-0001-001

Ngobeni



Left: Ellen Xaba weaves a bright tapestry, full of the colours of Africa. Below: Winnie Sebidi makes one of the colourful clay pots for which Katlehong is famous.





design and knitting, to sculpture, painting, metal work, music and drama (a firm favourite with the township kids), it is no exaggeration to say that Katlehong Art Centre is for all. ❖

Above: Hand-painted signs invite the whole community to join in the activities. Above, left: Even the walls carry Katlehong's message of art.