18 February 1989

Dear Johan,

Thank you for your letters of 26 October 1988 and 8 February 1989. I am sorry, but seemingly the original October letter never reached me, and therefore I was unable to answer you earlier.

The Finnish Library Association is paying for the invoices you are sending to us. They paid last year your proforma invoice of P 7108.95. Unfortunately, it seems to have been reduced on the way to P 6977.54! I'll instruct them to inform you by a separate letter whenever they make payments in the future.

Please, send the books by airmail package in small quantities straight to us as soon as you receive them. I have just written a letter addressed to John Foley about receiving the periodicals and the way of sending them. Hope you have received it.

Could you please send us two Cosatu calendars for 1989, and 6 Cosatu diaries.

You mentioned that you didn't receive the NOVIB money. I don't understand what has gone wrong, but I'll start making urgent inquiries about it. Unfortunately, with our present financial set up with the Finnish Library Association we cannot make donations to you, but ought to have clear proforma invoices. We can immediately pay for any outstanding bookorders, but could you please wait a bit more with the payment for periodicals so as to be able to clear the mess with NOVIB. Hope you can bear with us!

In the year of mass action for people's power,

Marjatta Lahti
