

n)
O.
8
_/
00
2:,
Â«J
E
co
the white man to pay for black housing,â\200\235
AW bo
/talk%tociigsh
AWB leader Mr Eugene TerreBlanche yestegrday advised white South Africans to keep their guns clean and oiled and to_ build up a stock of ammunition.
Speaking to a capacity crowd at Van Riebeeck Hall in Nelspruit, TerreBlanche drew thunderous applause when he said: â\200\234The day anybody in South Africa takes our weapons, that's the day the AWB declares war.â\200\235
During a 90-minute speech, TerreBIanche accused State President FW De Klerk of being a â\200\234political thietâ\200\231 â\200\230.
â\200\234By selling South Africaâ\200\230s oil reserves - reserves built up over many years uâ\200\231nder Dr Verwoerd, J ohn Vorster and Prime Minister PW Botha - President De Klerk had robbed he said.
" 'ï-\201fn'id cries of â\200\234skande, skandeâ\200\235, TerreBlanche said it was the white man who through the years had â\200\234kept the black manâ\200\231s stomach fullâ\200\235 by producing cheap food.
Yet when it came to paying tax, whites accounted for 87 percent compared to 13 percent paid by Indians, coloureds and blacks, he said.
Refen-ing to the VAT stayaway, he said the Congress of South African Trade Unions and the ANC had little to be proud of.
â\200\234Although millions of blacks stayed at home, life in general has gone on as usual. â\200\224 Sapa.
(.\\\ M
SOWETAN WednesdayNovember 619911
250 ANCL
ABOUT 250 ANC members were arrested in Dimhaza near King William's Town on Monday afternoon. bringing the number detained since the Ciskei state of emergency was declared to 278.
Among those arrested were ANC regional executive member Mr Sam Kwelita, the chairman of the Dimbaza Residents Association, Mr Vuyisile Radoni, and an executive member of the ANC and the residentâ\200\231s association, Mr Amos Mpela.
The ANC's Border publicity secretary.
Ms Marion Sparg, said police were still refusing to conï-\201rm the whereabouts of emergency detainees. â\200\234Many of our members have been held for over a week now in temis of the emerâ\200\224 â\200\224â\200\224â\200\224â\200\224â\200\224â\200\224â\200\224â\200\224_-â\200\224-â\200\224â\200\224â\200\224â\200\224â\200\224â\200\224â\200\224_, .7, , agency regulations. Friends and relatives have approached police stations where they are believed to be held to take them fresh clothing and food parcels.
â\200\234In all cases, they are told that no emergency detainees are held In that particular station."
The ANC has also claimed that in Komga. near East London, an armed group of PAC supporters led by an SAP special constable roamed the township on Sunday night. attacking residents.
â\200\234Seven people received stab wounds ini-\202icted by pangas and axes and several stonings also took place," said Spars. â\200\224 Elnews

Page 3
Attacks mount
on IFP men
\\Q}\

AN Inkatha Freedom Party
Youth Brigade leader was shot dead at Mbalenhle, near Secunda on Monday, an IFP offi-\201cial said yesterday.
' IFP West Rand secretary Mr Humphrey Ndlovu said AKâ\200\22447 and 9mm cartridges had been found at the scene after the shooting of Mr Mbhekifeni Gwala (32).
Inkatha was postponing all planned meetings on the Reef this weekend because of Gwala's death, Ndlovu said. b\Y
Meanwhile four In atha members were killed In separate attacks' In Natal at the weekend, according to IFP violence study unit head Mr Kim Hodgson.
An IFP organiser at Umhumbulu,
Mr Nfunzelwa Ngcongo, was killed and a friend was seriously injured when a group of people opened fire on Ngcongo's house on Saturday.
Two of the attackers were killed when the two men returned i-\201re.â\200\230 Hodgson said another IFP member. Mr Goman Makhurubu, was stabbed to death in Ngwclezane, outside Empangeni, at the weekend.
In the same area, two IFP Youth Brigade members were seriously injured after being assaulted by agmup.
In Greytownâ\200\230s Nhlalakahle township, IFP member Mr Patrick Mkhize was killed and an unidentiï-\201ed IFP member was killed in a grenade attack â\200\230 in Glcbelands Hostel in Umlazi this weekend, Hodgson said. ~ Sapa
, "___â\200\224â\200\224