

The meeting opened at its scheduled time at 4.30 p.m.
Seven committee members out of ten attended.
The Chairman praised the committee members for the good attendance, and stressed that
The heart of Adult Education activities and programmes, its driving force; was and is this committee, that does its thinking and planning and:-
Directs its activities and carries out any executive action arising from the decisions and:-
Non-attendance/Irregularity in attendance of the committee members result: in not convening the meeting because there is not a quorum, and thus the committee cannot make any decisions and therefore impedes the development and plans, programmes and activities of Adult Education to our ANC community as a whole.
Minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted.

Some learners register their names for sometime and then they disappear.
Out of 67 registered learners it is recorded that only 30 turned up from 5th
September to 14th September, 1983. '
REASONS:
Lack of political consciousshess of learners towards education as a tool for Unity and Liberation. ,h :xliTg, h:_J , 3 5-32
.RECOMMENDATIONS: . A ' ' " 1 1
In order to rhctify the poor attendance of Adult Education learners the committee agreed:- a
The committe should arrange to give a poixtieal education campaign to all odr'the recorded learners stressing very seriously the neecessity of continuing attending claSSLs. , .1 Arrange a campaign to areuee p6llticalm consciousness to our community in order td"5r6use ae$ine participatigp in _enrolment and att'endance.
The compulsory attendance. It Was felt th5$ leanning is necessary part of workLng, so non-attendance in classes will be taken the same as--nen- .
attendanbe at work.
In order to improve the daily attendance the committee requested the list of all -the learners and their residential addresses; his/her daily attendancepartieulars, for the month of September.
