

1b) 1.
.-____.M.--_.
I
2101'
Achesa fseno/i ml :1 hundred South
r nnabl c 10 read and xh and 40 out Of u
?miucd '13 a cunscrwnv it read and
l villcr :(inguc.
hing figures.
UniVL'r
l'u'm cir wmlcrpuhli-
hc cnnx'lminls millions of
_: ms l'rozn fulfill-
weilivu rcwlls.
mrkmlf Mlubu mur iobs and. in m werc ehlc 10
Hi :(iulil 'li'i'liCVC
li i311 :
1.x hit'h Wni cl clcriscd by u hrk xzuppdgcx m . L .m phmls.
X 3.3.3 '5
The sociucmnomi implication of illiteracy and develop-menl and reconstruction that has become the focus ofmany orgunr iszl him has Forced (I rcvlmvk ul ltunlion being given to adult mlucution.
"This is curcmcly relevant given the historical attempts to i exclude the vast majority of South Africans from meaningful edur cation. Furlhcmmrc, the disruption in lhc schooling life of thousands since 1076 has ensured that 'hcrc ZIFC :1 la 2 numbcrofyoung a: shebeehis
:' liln'iN
xl by people ' t dcmunds for lirccdom from my lineal and economic opprcssiun. chuplc wzml political frectium from S x'. children want
l?ccdom from purcms, business;rii-n want business freedom - it's a iran happening all over when.- c::lls for deregulation, privatisa-Hun and private ownership arc
.
But deregulation has cumc with challenges which now sec profit margins shrink us more people enter the lquOT trade with relative case.
While (chly years ago any-011-: entering the liquor business 00
l
4 . . . -.,.
Spokespcrwn l'nr Numsu said
A magswc demonstration inference Thu Sumh African Council

on Higher Education (Sachcd) Trust - Durban Branch - will host a major conference on Adult Education on the 2nd and 3rd of August at the University of Durban Westville to address the problem.

The conference is intended for adult educators and their constituency in the Natal region.
Bursaries will be given to people who are sent by community organisations and trade unions.

WV: anticipate about 200

1/2 from formal and non.

formal . 1. many initiatives; urban : many 'r 11 education projects; small BTW: :irnginr zmisations and meeting

sistl wni

vii 3:7 '1.1-Ut.1x

1' / :i 1;.xulls' u! :lurcgu-lulium hmc hccn an increase in the number of lavmcers and shcbccncrs.

Mlnbu said deregulation should t be accompanied by encouragement from authorities.

"The central govtsmmcnl and the Qwaqwu regional govtsmmcnl have done exactly that.

But other quarters do not feel that way.

1 They feel that you 115 lncme ers/shcbccncrs are not grown-up : enough to decide what ' is good or 1 bad for you,' Mlah. . an (b)vious inference

hc KwaZulu govtsmmcnl which still uule laws shcbccncrs

,. Student Congress (Natal).

p ()ycr S or:)n tomorrow

Friday. The epokctpcrson said.

for UDW

mgional urgmisulims such as trugc unions. university dcparrncnu; and other schicc organisations.'

Naidou said.

The conference programme was put together by :1 planning commiucc consisting of the following: Cosatu Education Depart; mcnt. Centre for Adult Education at the UanCfSlly of Natal (both Durban and Pietermaritzburg).
Career Information Centre. NECC, the Valley Trust, University of Durban Westville Education Department, South African Democratic Teachers Union
E (Sadru), Dink; Inn Education Desk and Lhc South African National ANC

march

New African Reporter

The Durban Central branch (if the African National Congress, has organised :1 march aimed at highlighting the plight of the residents of Mkhumbunc who presently continue to be Victims of forced removals and demolitions of their houses.

The march takes place on Saturday. It will begin at 9 am from the SL Immigrants' Club in Central Durban at the City Hall.

This march will demand an end to demolitions and police harassment. Immediate provision of water and electricity. An immediate moratorium on the sale of the land pending consultation with the community. 1 film and video training/media education . . . Ch" thing else fails we will continue with mass action.' he said.

ligation into the murder of the lalngi

live online

So far, police have angrily I

PROJECT CO-ORDINATOR '

The Community Film and Video School, a project of FAWO - (an organisation committed to the development of a dynamic and progressive film culture in South Africa) provides full and part time training to South Africans with limited access to film and video production. Applicants are invited to the position of Co-ordinator.

REQUIREMENTS

(1) Organisational and administrative skills
(2) An understanding and commitment to
(3) A commitment to developing progressive media.

(4) Willingness to work collectively.
(5) A degree in film education and computer literacy would be advantageous.

The successful applicant will:

(6) Follow up funding.
(7) Liaise with SRCF and outside organisations.

and budgeting.

(9) Possibly teach a Social Science course.

Applications should include a full C.V.

and should be addressed to:

The Co-ordinator, Community Film and Video School, Box 16939, Doornfontein, 2028.

or tel. (011) 402.0777, Closing date:

15th August 1991, Further inquiries:

(011) 4024570/1 .