

:EEVtSeNfAQhB th;qt

Anti-Apartheid Activities by
Buraku Liberation League and IMADR

29 June 1991

t Activities by Buraku Liberation League (BLL)

Aug. 1986

Public meeting with Archbishop Desmond Tutu as a guest (Tokyo)

Apr. 1987

Public meeting to call for abolition of apartheid and establishment of peace, with Mr. Oliver Tambo as a guest (Osaka)

Apr. 1991

Financial contribution to the National Conference of ANC
Women's League (24-28 April) at the request of ANC Tokyo
Office

8 Since the foundation of the International Movement
Against All Forms of Discrimination and Racism (IMADR) in January 1988, BLL has actively participated in the following activities as a member of IMADR and its Japan Committee. Mr. Freddie Dlamini from ANC Department of Internal Publicity, has been on the board of IMADR since its inception, and is currently its Vice-President.

May-June 1988

Anti-apartheid public meetings with Mr. Donald Woods as a guest (Tokyo/Osaka)

Dec. 1988

"The Second International Conference Against Discrimination" (8 cities in Japan), with Mr. Freddie Dlamini and others as guests

Mar. 1989

"Meeting to Call for the Abolition of Apartheid and the Ratification of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination" to commemorate the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination of 21 March (Tokyo)

Mar. 1990

Symposium and concert to commemorate the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination of 21 March

Mar. 1990-

Carried out activities as a leading member of the "Campaign Committee on the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination", including a fund-raising for the purpose of assisting South African children and publication of a newsletter "Southern African Bulletin".

Mar. 1990

Symposium to commemorate the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination of 21 March (Tokyo) etc Others

Mar. 1988

Issued an urgent appeal to protest against and call for the withdrawal of the decision on the execution of 'Sharpeville Six' to the South African authorities (IMADR) 1989

Made a Japanese version of the Swedish film "Amandla! We Aim High". The film has been shown in various meetings of BLL and other citizens' groups.

Aug. 1989

Members and a teachers' group of BLL Fukuoka Prefectural Chamber visited SOMAFCO (Tanzania) and South Africa to learn the educational situation.

By carrying out above and other activities, BLL and IMADR Japan Committee have played an active role in the anti-apartheid movement in Japan, in close cooperation with ANC Tokyo Office and other anti-apartheid groups.