Bear Jennifer,

Our visit to the as marked a significant step forward in our campaign to increase international involvement in the atruggle against apartheid and for a united, non-racial and damocratic South Africa. Among ether things, it enabled us to further strengthen our ties with antl~apartheid forces, supportars and friends in tha Dnitad States. It gave us occasion to reach out to several naw and significant constituencies. We also cherished the opportunity to address ourselves to a variaty of concerns which seemad to stand between antl~apartheid sentimant and neCBSSuyy action in the US.

I wish to thank you and all your colleagues far the role yen played in helping to ensure for us a most successful visit to the Unidad States. I recall with deep appreciation the lovely reception Africa Fund and Artists Unidad Against Apartheid busted for us at Elaanor Raosavelt House and are most grateful for thi-â\201swgsm dmation made to the ANC~SA on that ocaasion, totalling '
