Let. me first start by saying the security situation has been deteriorating at a very fast pace, we have very many break-ins. mine; armed robberies, we have as a region been seriously engaged in trying find a solution to these problems. The situation may be made better by the fact that in this memory have 1mm 3 system of guarding involving the Hole 00mm. This has a result raised criminal activity very exclusively- including in Mmgom Tom. .

volved in unethical practices, if the complaint was not formally lodged.
This follows Saturday Staris recent reports about some doctors, particularly in the platteland, not'
keeping records for cash- -payingi" black patients.

Although SAMDCs registri a; tlieo 3 v I Prinsloo stressed that while it was official policy that doctors keep records of "all patients for a reason-1
- able period", the council could not rely on press reports to act against f doctors.

Some doctors investigated only issued Small slips to the patlent as the sole record of a visit ' u i The onus, according to the doctors, lay with the patient to keep the slip.

In an interview this week, the ' Medical Association of South Africa

"As Led about the consequences of eidctors not keeping records, Mr; . Primioo said doctors who failed to do so could either be cautioned, suspended or removed from the register (. spending on the seriousness of the cases and the circumstances surrounding them. " tAN C lured Children into camp ordeali SCHOOLCHILDREN were allegedly duped into travelling to an ANC camp in Zambia, where they wyerey . ' ' urged to undergo military training. The first of a group of 160 pupils from Pretoria and the Rand made their own way back to the south African border last night after what ' they claim was a month- -10ng ordeal at the hands of the ANC.

After repeated attempts to reach the ANC, no comment could be obtained from the organisation at the . time of going to press.

During a Security Police-organised press conference at the posh Mount Grace Hotel near Ma galies- ' burg, pupils alleged they were tire-cruited'? by a Rockville priest and the wife of a Soweto school inspector.

i "We were offered scholarships ln 1 Kenya for a R160 fee. "

"In Soweto, a Mrs Mokoepo collected our passports and said she would fax our particulars to the Kenyan authorities We were told the scholarships were sponsored by forelgn investors" t

On Friday, February 22, a group of 160 pupils ln their late teens and early twenties left Soweto ln three buses and crossed through Bo-phuthatswana and Botswana.

2 At the Zambian border they were V told to cross the Zambezi river by , ferry and were met on the Zambian side by a Mr Nduma.

We demanded food and wanted to know where we were going but he said we would be told only what we needed to know. " - They were taken to place on
"We were told this was an ANC "Or. passports, money and per-possessions were confiscated and we were not allowed to leave the camp or make telephone calls" .Pupiz" . said they were forced to do manual labour every day and abluticn and cooking facilities were primitwe. uWe defied threats of physical violence and went to the ANC headquarters in Lusaka and demanded l . to go back home. " During a three-week ordeal, the-pupils said, ANC officials refused to harm over their passports and V frustrated their efforts to leave the camp

"We eventually persuaded them to give back our passports and we ' bought our own bus tickets back to South Africa " .
Seemingly police said they had no ' reason to detain the pupils as, by their own admittance, they had not . undergone any military training
