September 13. 1988,

Dear Sir,

We have received, with deep appreciation and sincere thanks, a copy of your letter to the Secretary-General of the United Nations, H.E. J.A.V. Perez De Cuellar that you addressed to our President, Oliver Tambo who is presently out of the country.

We welcome your appeal to the Secretary-General of the U.N., to use his good offices to secure the immediate release of Nelson Mandela. We hope many more people will follow this path and will urge their governments, to do the same while increasing their support for Nelson Mandela's movement - the African National Congress.

Yours most sincerely,

Anthony Mongalo,
Secretary for Presidential Affairs.
