Mr Oliver Tambo,
ANC Headquarters,
LUSAKA,
Zambia.

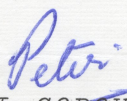

Dear Oliver,

In our discussions earlier this year you denied that the ANC had opted to go for "soft" targets and you expressed your personal abhorrence of killing - even to the extent of being careful not to harm an insect found in your bath.

.... For those reasons I find the questions posed in the enclosed clipping from the Financial Mail to be very pertinent and I wish you would let me have your answers to them.

I send you the Seasons Greetings and I trust that in this time of Christian goodwill we will both be praying for peace in our country in 1986.

Yours sincerely,

J. DE L. SOROUR
