SIDA'S HOME ACTIVITIES ALLOCATION FOR 1990/91.

Ingerlil Colbro of SIDA, Stockholm, informed me on 27/11/90 that SIDA will release the Home Activities allocation as follows:

- a. Of the SEK 26.5 million so far the first quarterly amount has been transferred to the ANC.
- b. Of the remaining SEK 20 million, half of this amount will be released immediately for use by the Finance Dept in Johannesburg to cover some of the administration costs in the ANC Consolidated Budget July 1990 to June 1991. The TG handed SIDA this Budget on 27/11/90.
- c. The other half of the SEK 20 million will be released for the ANC identified Home Activities, such as Information & Publicity, DLCA work, Preparations for Negotiations, etc. SIDA will only release this money upon receipt of a Proposal & Budget. The TG requests that Cde Vusi Khanyile should coordinate the preparation of this Proposal & Budget, which should be sent to Mr. Roland Axelsson as soon as possible.

In our meeting with SIDA on 27/11/90, SIDA agreed to transfer the money to our London account. *

* Please liaise with Kay Moonsamy & Vusi Khanyile.

MESSAGE :

① TG requests that you should coordinate with Kay/Jacob/Diana in Lusaka (who will be liaising with Mr. Roland Axelsson, the SIDA Regional Representative in Lusaka) and with Billy Modise in Stockholm regarding the SIDA-ANC CONSULTATIVE MEETING.

② SIDA will release remaining $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1990/91 Home Activities Allocation immediately. The other half will be released once a budget proposal is presented for Home Activities, such as, Inf & Publicity, Negotiations, etc. Could you please liaise with the relevant Departments and draw up a budget for SEK 10M approx. When I arrive in JHB on 9/12/90 we could finalise the submission.
