

\ -â\200\224 05>) _ oo) 5 COR IVEV ECO IND AINE

Ngobees

Left: Ellen Xaba weaves a bright tapestry, full of the colours of Africa Below: Winnie SÃ©bidi makes one of the colourful clay pots for which Kattlehong is famous.

he Radek EN

design and knitting, to sculpture, painting, metal work, music and drama (a firm favourite with the township kids), it is no Bah exaggeration to say that Above: Hand-painted signs invite the whole community to join i n the Kattlehong Art Centre is for all. activities. Above, left: Even the walls carry Kattlehon gâ\200\231s message of art.

20 â\200\224 CLUB, Januay 1990