(g) the names, addresses and telephonic or other means of contact of the chief election agent and the regional election agents of the party and their respective deputies.

(4) No party shall be registered unless a declaration in the form prescribed by the Chief Director has been signed on behalf of such party by the duly authorised representative party in terms of which the party commits and subjects itself, its office bearers, party officials and listed candidates to the Electoral Code of Conduct

(5) The Commission shall, after the period prescribed in subsection (1) mm to be published in the ML: a complete list of applications for registration in which objections are invited by interested parties.

(6) (a) The Commission may disallow a proposed name, abbreviated name, distinguishing mark, symbol or colours of a party in the event that it -

(i) contains a portrayal of any arms, ammunition, uniform or other object normally used in or associated with military operations, whether in time of war or peace;

(ii) resembles the proposed name, abbreviated name, distinguishing mark, symbol or colours; as the case may be, of any other party to such extent that in the opinion of the Commission, it may deceive or confuse; or

(iii) contains anything which portrays the propagation of or incitement to violence or which might cause serious offence to any section of the population on the grounds of race, sex, ethnic origin, colour, sexual orientation, age disability, religion, conscience, creed, culture or language.

(b) If the Commission is of the opinion that the name, abbreviated name, distinguishing mark, symbol or colours referred to in subsection (3) of a party corresponds with, or substantially resembles, the name, abbreviated name, distinguishing mark, symbol or colours, as the case may be, of another party, it -

(i) shall take into account the fact that the party which is associated with the name, the distinguishing mark or symbol, colours or abbreviated name, as the case may be for the longest time, should be entitled thereto;

(ii) may, for the purposes of subparagraph (i) -

' (a) grant the party concerned an opportunity to deliver such proof, including oral evidence or sworn statements by any person which in ' the opinion of the Commission, could be of assistance in the expeditious determination of the matter; and -

(bb) administer an oath or affirmation to any person appearing to testify before it.

(7) (a) The Chief Director shall refer each application submitted to him or her to the Commission so that it may determine within seven days of the receipt by it of the application, whether the application complies with the provisions of this section, and if it finds that any application does not so comply, it shall return the application and party's deposit forthwith to the party with a written indication of the reasons for its finding.

(b) Upon receipt of the reasons for the Commission's finding in terms of paragraph (a) a party shall have three days in which to rectify and resubmit the application.

(c) The Commission shall determine whether the rectified application complies with the provisions of this section and it shall make its determination within three days of receipt of the rectified application.

(8) If the Commission is of the opinion taking into account any objections received, that the application of a party submitted complies with the provisions of this section, it shall register that party and issue to it a registration certificate in the prescribed form.
