TO WOMEN IN MAZIMBU/MOROGORO
MAY 16, 1983

From June 21 - 25, 1983, a WORLD ASSEMBLY FOR PEACE AND LIFE AGAINST NUCLEAR WAR will be held in Prague, Czechoslovakia. A delegation from the ANC will be attending this Assembly. Our Secretariat has requested that women in all regions discuss the topics to be dealt with by the Assembly, especially Topic No. 10. (See list below.)

The Secretariat would like us to submit our comments and suggestions on what issues our delegation should stress. We are also invited to send articles, poems, drawings, etc.

Time is short, comrades, and all contributions must be submitted to the Political Subcommittee by Friday, May 20, so that they can be prepared for submission. They should be handed in to your group leader or to Cde Lynn or to Cde Karin.

This issue is a very topical and important one: the peace movement is closely related to our liberation struggle and to the struggle of the whole world for a free and secure future. Your contributions are necessary for our delegation to properly represent the ANC Women's Section at this Assembly.
