

ALFRED THOBA

May 17 - June 6
1994

at

Natalie Knight Gallery
(011) 880-2212

Sex and Suburbia

110-1050-2000 0141

ALFRED THOBA

- |      |   |      |   |
|------|---|------|---|
| 1951 | Born in Johannesburg.No formal training. Worked full time as an artist in central Johannesburg. He was constantly forced to move because of the Group Areas restrictions.   | 1991 | One man show, Natalie Knight Gallery.   |
| 1977 | Painted a poignant work entitled 1976 Riots which was exhibited at the Market Gallery at the "100 Artists Protest Detention Without Trial" in January 1988. This work was published in Sue Williamson's book Resistance Art in South Africa . | 1991 | Thoba's work acquired by the University of Fort Hare, The Africana Museum, The Johannesburg Art Gallery, The Sandton Art Museum and others.   |
| 1987 | Group show at Natalie Knight Gallery.   | 1992 | Nominated for the Vita Awards, exhibition at the Johannesburg Art Gallery.  |
| 1989 | Group show "African Encounters" curated by Natalie Knight Gallery at the Dome Gallery, New York.  | 1993 | Invited to exhibit at Galleri African Heritage, Oslo, Norway.   |
| 1990 | "African Encounters" travelled to the Alex Gallery in Washington and to Knight Galleries International, Toronto.  | 1993 | Group show, "Cultural Diversity", at the Natalie Knight Gallery, Johannesburg.  |
| 1990 | Group exhibition at Rand Afrikaans University.  | 1993 | Group show "South African Art" at the World Trade Centre in Toronto curated by Knight Galleries International.                                |
|      |   | 1994 | One Man show at the Natalie Knight Gallery, "Sex and Suburbia".   |
|      |   | 1994 | Group show "Windows on the New South Africa" at the World Trade Centre, Toronto, curated by Knight Galleries International. Sponsored by SAA. |