LUSAKA

Dear Comrade Tambo,

On the occasion of your 70th Birthday, I would like to extend to you my best wishes for good health and speedy achievement of the lofty goals you have been so fervently fighting for, for over half a century now.

I would like to avail myself of this opportunity to reassure you of the continuous political and material support of the peoples of Yugoslavia to the just struggle of the oppressed South African people until total eradication of apartheid.

I am confident that the friendly relations and cooperation between the Socialist Alliance of the Working People of Yugoslavia and the African National Congress of South Africa will continue to grow from strength to strength.

Milojko Drulovic
President,
Federal Conference of the Socialist Alliance of the Working
People of Yugoslavia."
