Dear 99an

I trust that you travelled safely to and from South Africa. I look forward to hearing, first, hand, how things stand. Everyone of us here anticipates a far brighter future for South Africa and is looking forward, anxiously, to the critical day in May when AN C takes over the reigns of government.

Grace Mongi-Clifton telephoned from Trinidad last week to check if I had received her tel ex about corrections to the poem. When it was retyped for her unfortunately there were two unfortunate omissions in verse g line 5 and verse 13 lg; line. I have attached hereto the two verses (from her original type-written draft) with the missing lines highlighted. It will be greatly appreciated if you would kindly forward this correction to concerned parties.

Best regards.

Yours sincerely
