'What is the Freedom Charter? The Freedom Charter contains the fundamental perspective of the vast majority of the people of South Africa of the kind of liberation that we, all of us, are fighting for. Hence it is not merely the Freedom Charter of the African National Congress and its allies. Rather it is the Charter of the people of South Africa for liberation. It was drawn up on the basis of the demands of the vast masses of our country and adopted at an elected Congress of the People. Because it came from the people, it remains still a People's Charter, the one basic political statement of our goals to which all genuinely democratic and patriotic forces of South Africa adhere ...'

President Oliver Tambo, January 8th, 1980

The print on this card is a reproduction from a set of paintings depicting the demands of the Freedom Charter, by South African artist Ruth Carneson.
