Jan Oliver

I must apologise for the delay in writing this letter. It brings you our warm thanks for addressing the Society a few weeks ago in June with such success.

It was one of the best and most historic meetings held in the Society, and I am sure you were gratified by the warmth of the audience's reception, as I was. Subsequently we had two further successful meetings on the subject of South Africa at which the speakers were Mr Neil Kinnock and Mr Malcolm Fraser.

I am sorry it was such a scrum after your meeting, but the subsequent press coverage was wide so I hope you thought it was all worth while.

I am expecting to be in Harare myself for the Nonaligned summit, so there may be a chance to meet you again if you are there.

Yours faithfully

Derek Ingram
Chairman, Public Affairs Committee
