To African National Congress:

I am interested in sponsoring a speaker on life under apartheid in South Africa at the University of Connecticut at Stamford.

I am teaching a women's studies course and we will be reading Nadine Gordimer's Burger's Daughter. I would like if the speaker could speak about the history and conditions of life in South Africa, the freedom movements, and current changes; however, given the focus of the class, I would like the speaker to highlight the conditions for women in South Africa: their role in freedom movements, special conditions of discrimination, etc.

The speaker would be addressing the class, but we will also open the event to the public.

A tentative date is April 2 at 7 pm.

Please let me know if you have a speaker and also your fees.

If you could briefly describe the speaker's background and experiences in this area it would help me in the funding requests.

If you could respond quickly, this would help me to apply for funding in time.

Sincerely,

Pat Cramer .(r Jng
