Tt is with alarm that I became aware of the lack of representation of woman at the Codesa talks.

Women make up the majority of the South African population and one would expect that at Codesa our rights for reasonable representantion will be acknowledged. To do otherwise makes a mockery of the search fer a Damooratic South Africa.

Too long have women been silent, non-violent sufferers under a system a to keep us without power and hardly anymore status than a

We demand our right to participate fully in decisions about cur future and this can only happen with fair representation at Codausa.

Yours sincerely
